Revenue and Expenditure

HON. DR. HO KAI, pursuant to notice, asked the following questions:—

Will the Government lay on the table at the next meeting of this Council a return showing

- (1) The total amount of revenue
- (2) The total amount of expenditure
- (3) The amount of margin (if any)
- (4) The amount of military contribution
- (5) Total amount spent on Public Works extraordinary for the years 1896 to 1910 inclusive?

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY replied— On the assumption that the word "Margin" is used as defined by His Excellency the Governor in his speech on September 24th, 1908 (Hansard, page 128), to which presumably the honourable member's question refers, I have the honour to lay upon the table a Statement containing the figures asked for:

 2. Military Contribution fixed at 20% of gross revenue, exclusive of "Extraordinary." * Expenditure "Extraordinary" does not include Railway and Harbour of Refuge.

Kowloon-Canton Railway

His EXCELLENCY — Gentlemen, —
 With your permission I rise to make a personal correction of an error in the speech which I delivered at the Council meeting before last regarding the Railway. I said that no provision had been made for a sinking fund in the estimates for the current year, and I intended to correct that statement at the last meeting, but it slipped my memory. You will find that on page 100 of the estimates a sum of $65,371, being 1% on the Wuchang Loan of (E02)1,144,000 for half a year, is provided to meet the sinking fund.

Military Contribution

HON. MR. EDE—Your Excellency, I rise to give notice of the following question: "With reference to the remarks of the honourable Mr. Slade in the debate of the 8th October, 1908, will the Government lay upon the table some papers embodying the views and calculations of His Excellency the Governor upon the subject of the Military Contribution?"

The Statute Laws (New Revised Edition) Ordinance

THE ATTORNEY - GENERAL moved the first reading of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to authorise the publication of a Newly Revised Edition of the Revised Edition of the Statute Laws of the Colony prepared in virtue of Ordinance No. 12 of 1900."

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a first time.

The Money-Lenders' Ordinance

THE ATTORNEY - GENERAL moved the first reading of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Law with respect to Persons carrying on business as Moneylenders."

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a first time.

The objects and reasons state that this Bill introduces in the Colony the principal provisions of the Imperial Moneylenders' Act, 1900.

Census Amendment Ordinance

THE ATTORNEY - GENERAL moved the first reading of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Census Ordinance, 1881."

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a first time.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL—Sir, I beg to move that the Standing Orders be suspended in order that this Bill may pass through all its stages at this meeting of the Council. Standing Order 31 provides that after the first reading of a Bill it shall be published in the Gazette for general information. Standing Order 13D provides that any motion for the suspension of the Standing Orders can be made without notice. This Ordinance was suggested by the editor who is revising the new edition of the Ordinances. It is considered that these amendments to the Census Ordinance are very necessary, and it is also necessary that the Bill should be put through speedily, as I believe the Census is to be taken on the 20th of this month.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the motion was agreed to.

THE ATTORNEY - GENERAL then moved the second reading of the Bill. In doing so he said — The Bill is, I think, sufficiently explained in the objects and reasons attached to it by its draftsman, Sir Francis Piggott, who suggested these amendments while going through the old Ordinances in course of revision. They read as follows; This Ordinance is introduced in order to supplement some omissions in the Census Ordinance, discovered during the progress of the revision, and which are sufficiently serious to require legislation in view of the coming Census. The amendments concern chiefly the status of the enumerators, and their powers in connection with collecting information, neither of which points is at all clear in the existing Ordinance. In ordinary circumstances, the amendments being numerous, the Ordinance should have been recast, but this would have disarranged the work of the reviser. It is intended, however, to publish the Ordinance as amended in the Gazette for general information.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the motion was agreed to.

Council then resolved itself into a committee of the whole Council to consider the Bill clause by clause.

On resuming,

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL reported that the Bill had passed through its committee stages without amendment, and moved that it be read a third time.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a third time and passed.

University Amendment Ordinance

THE ATTORNEY - GENERAL moved the first reading of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the University Ordinance, 1911."

The objects and reasons attached to the Bill are as follows:—

Section 2.—It is proposed to abolish the words limiting the choice of these two members to representatives of Asiatic races other than Chinese.

Section 3. — The Senate cannot be constituted until the academic staff of the University has been selected; but in the meantime it is desirable that a member of the Senate of the Hongkong College of Medicine should have a seat in the Council of the University.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a first time.

Sale of Food and Drugs Amendment Ordinance

THE ATTORNEY - GENERAL moved the first reading of a Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Sale of Food and Drugs Ordinance, 1896."

This Bill introduces two important provisions of the Imperial Sale of Foods and Drugs Act, 1899, the introduction of which has been strongly urged by the Government medical advisers.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a first time.

The Electricity Bill

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL—I beg to move that the Council go into Committee to consider the report of the Public Works Committee on the Bill entitled, "An Ordinance for regulating the supply of Electricity for Lighting and other purposes within the Colony of Hongkong and its Dependencies."

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the motion was agreed to.

Council then resolved itself into a Committee of the whole Council to consider the Bill clause by clause: and upon the motion of the Attorney-General, seconded by the Colonial Secretary, the Standing Orders were suspended in order that although one member of the Standing Public Works Committee had been absent during the consideration of the Bill by that Committee the Bill might, notwithstanding the provisions of rule No. 40 of the Standing Rules and Orders of the Council, be dealt with by the Council in the same manner as a Bill reported on by a Committee of the whole Council. No member objected, and the several amendments suggested by the Public Works Committee were approved.

Council then resumed.

HIS EXCELLENCY—Council will adjourn until next Thursday.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.
