000000 - 000451	Chairman	Welcoming and introductory remarks  Confirmation of minutes of meetings on 29 April 2004
000452 - 000718	Chairman ALA1 Administration Mr SIN Chung-kai	Briefing by the Administration on its response to members' concerns raised at the meeting held on 29 April 2004. [CB(1)1753/03-04 (01)]  ALA1 advised that the Chinese version of the Bill and related Committee Stage amendments (CSAs) were in order subject to the agreement of the Administration to make technical drafting amendments as tabled.
000719 - 004044	Chairman Administration Mr Abraham SHEK Ms Miriam LAU Ms Audrey EU Mr Ambrose LAU	Briefing by the Administration on its response to the submission dated 14 May 2004 from the Real Estate Developers Association of Hong Kong (REDA). [CB(1)1825/03-04 (01)] [CB(1)1855/03-04 (02)]  Mr Abraham SHEK considered that the Administration should further discuss with REDA on its proposal in respect of interest deduction for debentures held by controlling shareholders.

000719 - 004044 (Cont'd)		Ms Miriam LAU reiterated her concern that the development of the local bond market would be adversely affected by the proposed anti-avoidance provisions. She was also concerned that the Administration's approach of merely imposing the "tax symmetry" rule but giving no regard to genuine commercial activities might be abrasive. The Administration said that the policy intent of the proposed anti-avoidance provisions was to reinstate the "symmetry" principle and "non-associate/external borrowing" rule enshrined in section 16(2)(c), (d) and (e). The proposed arrangement was more equitable as interest on internal borrowings in the form of a loan by a controlling shareholder of all types of business undertaking was not allowed for profits tax deduction unless the tax symmetry condition was complied with. The Chairman referred to the Hansard on the Second Reading of the Inland Revenue (Amendment) Bill 1986 [CB(1)1714/03-04(01)] and pointed out that there was no clear indication of the purported policy intent of imposing the "tax symmetry" rule in section 16(2)(f). On the other hand, it was clear from the then FS's remark that the general anti-avoidance provisions under section 61A should not cause unnecessary inhibitions on genuine commercial transactions.

Time marker	Speaker	Subject(s)	Action required
000719 - 004044 (Cont'd)		The Administration pointed out that the amendments made in 1986 to the Inland Revenue Ordinance were only refinements to the Ordinance. The "tax symmetry" rule was enshrined in section 16(2)(c) to (e) when the section was introduced in 1983 and hence it should be consistently applied to section 16(2)(f). In response to Mr Ambrose LAU, the Administration advised that no legal advice had been sought on whether "tax symmetry" rule should be imposed in section 16(2)(f). In response to Mr Abraham SHEK's concern that the proposed arrangement was discriminatory against controlling shareholders, the Administration pointed out that it was because of the identification problem that the "tax symmetry" would not be applied to debentures held by minority shareholders.
004045 - 012501	Chairman Administration Ms Miriam LAU Mr Abraham SHEK Mr SIN Chung-kai Mr CHAN Kam-lam Mr Ambrose LAU	Mr SIN Chung-kai indicated the support of Members of the Democratic Party for the Administration's present proposals.

Time marker	Speaker	Subject(s)	Action required
004045 - 012501 (Cont'd)		In view of the concerns of REDA and Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce (HKGCC), Ms Miriam LAU, Mr Abraham SHEK, Mr CHAN Kam-lam and Mr Ambrose LAU said that they needed more time to examine the possible implications of the Administration's proposal and they were not yet convinced that the Administration's proposal should be supported. Some members also urged the Administration to discuss with REDA and HKGCC further on the proposed arrangement. Ms Miriam LAU and Mr CHAN Kam-lam also expressed concern that the proposed arrangement might cause significant disincentives to local corporations in raising funds through public issue of debt instruments. In response to the Chairman, the Administration confirmed that they would not pursue the proposal of REDA or any modified version of the proposal such as a lower threshold for the debenture holding by controlling shareholders because all such proposals were not consistent with existing tax principles and would enlarge existing loopholes.

Time marker	Speaker	Subject(s)	Action required
012502 - 013508	Chairman Ms Miriam LAU Mr CHAN Kam-lam Mr SIN Chung-kai ALA1 Administration	The Chairman concluded that the Bills Committee could not reach a consensus view on the proposed amendments under clause 6 of the Bill and the relevant CSAs. A majority of the Bills Committee members considered it advisable for the Administration to further discuss the amendments with relevant parties, in particular REDA and HKGCC. The Chairman also reiterated that he did not support the proposed amendments in clause 5 of the Bill relating to royalty income. The Chairman would report to the House Committee on 28 May 2004, and suggested separate voting on clauses 5 and 6 and their consequential amendments during the Committee Stage.
013509 - 013614	Chairman ALA1	Voting arrangement
013615 - 013947	Chairman Administration Mr SIN Chung-kai ALA1 Mr Ambrose LAU	The Administration's query as to the possibility of taking out section 16(2)(f) and related provisions for separate voting.
