that the applicant is a fit and proper person to be granted the exemption.

(3) The Commission shall refuse to grant a modification or waiver under subsection (1) unless it is satisfied by the applicant that to do so will not prejudice -

- (a) in the case of a modification or waiver granted in respect of a condition imposed under section 115, 116 or 118, the interests of any client of the applicant; or
- (b) in the case of a modification or waiver granted in respect of a condition imposed under section 119, 120, 125 or 130 or specified in section 117, or in respect of any requirement of a provision specified in subsection (1) (i) to (xii), the interest of the investing public.

<sup>2</sup> As mentioned in Paper No. 5H/01 dated 28 May 2001, we agree with the Bills Committee that the SFC should disclose the reasons for granting a modification or waiver for greater transparency. We propose that the SFC should also disclose the conditions imposed on a modification or waiver. However, the SFC should be provided with the discretion in disclosing the details about the conditions for preservation of trade secrets in justified cases, where such disclosure would reveal, for instance, prospective transactions, trading strategies, or the identity of clients or counterparties, which would prejudice the commercial interests of the applicant for the modification or waiver. The latter arrangement is similar to that in the UK where pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act, the Financial Services Authority (FSA) will make public waivers or modifications granted unless the FSA believes it is inappropriate or unnecessary to do so. There would be publication unless the commercial interests of the regulatees are to be unfairly prejudiced.

<sup>2</sup>(6A) If the applicant satisfies the Commission that compliance with subsection (6) (iii) would prejudice, to an unreasonable degree, the commercial interests of the applicant, then instead of specifying the conditions in compliance with [that subsection], the Commission may include in the notice -

(a) a brief account of its reasons for the non-compliance; and

(b) information on the conditions of the waiver and modification only to such extent as the Commission considers appropriate so as not to prejudice, to an unreasonable degree, the commercial interests of the applicant.

(7) The Commission may by rules grant a modification or waiver, in relation to a class of licensed persons or exempt persons or associated entities, in respect of any of the requirements of the rules referred to in subsection (1) (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix) or (x).

(8) The Commission shall not make any rules under subsection (7) to grant a modification or waiver referred to in that subsection unless the Commission is satisfied that to do so will not prejudice the interest of the investing public.

(9) The Commission may specify in the rules referred to in subsection (7) the conditions subject to which the modification or waiver is granted and the rules may provide that a person who fails to comply with such a condition commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding level 6.

(10) The Commission may at any time by rules -

- (a) revoke a modification or waiver granted under subsection (7); or
- (b) amend, revoke or add to, any condition subject to which such modification or waiver is granted.

(11) The Commission shall not exercise its power under subsection (1), (4), (7), (9) or (10) in relation to any exempt person or any associated entity that is an authorized financial institution unless the Commission has first consulted the Monetary Authority.

(12) Any person who fails to comply with a condition imposed under subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6.
