writing on the Monetary Authority stating that it does not propose to appeal under section 132A(2A)
against the decision;~~

~~———— (ii) the period specified in the Administrative Appeals Rules (Cap. 1 sub. leg.) within which the
institution may appeal under section 132A(2A) against the decision

having been made; or~~

the institution against the decision

~~———— (4) In this section —~~

~~"exempt authorized institution" (獲豁免認可機構) includes a company which is a former exempt authorized institution where the company was an exempt authorized institution at the time when the company was guilty of misconduct, and section 132A(2A) shall be construed accordingly;~~

~~"misconduct" (失當行為), in relation to an exempt authorized~~

~~institution, means—~~

- ~~(a) a contravention of any of the relevant provisions of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (— of 2000) which are applicable to the institution;~~

~~(5) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the power under this section of the Monetary Authority to reprimand an authorized institution is in addition to any other power of the Monetary Authority, whether under this Ordinance or otherwise and whether explicit or implicit, to reprimand an authorized institution (and whether or not the~~ ~~institution is an exempt authorized institution).~~".²²

"58A. Disciplinary action in respect of relevant individuals

(1) Where -

(a) a relevant individual is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct; or

(b) the Monetary Authority is of the opinion that a relevant individual is not, or has ceased to be, a fit and proper person in his capacity as that type of relevant individual, then the Monetary Authority may, after consultation with the Securities and Futures Commission -

(c) remove all or part of the individual's relevant particulars from the register; or

(d) suspend all or part of the individual's relevant particulars from the register for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Monetary Authority specifies. ²³

²² The original s.58A relates to the power of the Monetary Authority to reprimand relevant individuals. As mentioned in Paper No. 8D/01 issued on 28 May 2001, we proposed that the power be vested with the Securities and Futures Commission under Part IX of the Securities and Futures Bill (now in the new clause 189A). Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

²³ As a disciplinary action against front-line securities staff of ~~registered exempt authorized~~ institutions where such staff have been found guilty of misconduct or no longer fit and proper, it is proposed that the Monetary Authority should be empowered to take all or part of the particulars of such securities staff off the register, or to suspend all or part of such particulars from the register, to be maintained by the Monetary Authority under section 20(1)(ea) of the Banking Ordinance. This effectively amounts to revocation and

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) or the operation of any other provisions of this Ordinance, for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the Monetary Authority may exercise his power under that subsection wholly or partly on the basis of information disclosed to the Monetary Authority by the Securities and Futures Commission, and whether or not the information arises from an investigation under section 175 of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (of 2002).²⁴

(3) The Monetary Authority shall not exercise his power under subsection (1) against a relevant individual without first giving the individual an opportunity of being heard.²⁵

(4) Where the Monetary Authority decides to exercise his power under subsection (1) against a relevant individual, the Monetary Authority shall inform the individual of his suspension of the staff from conducting regulated activities on behalf of the registered ~~exempt-authorized~~ institution concerned, and is equivalent to the same disciplinary sanction against licensed representatives of a licensed corporation on the same grounds under clause 187 of the Securities and Futures Bill. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

²⁴ This subsection ensures that the Monetary Authority, in exercising his revocation/suspension power against front-line securities staff of a registered institution ~~an exempt AI~~, can rely on information provided by the SFC, e.g. the findings of an SFC investigation. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

(a) a statement of the reasons for which the decision is made;

(b) the time at which the decision is to take effect; and

(c) in so far as applicable, the duration and terms of the removal or suspension of particulars from the register to be imposed under the decision.²⁶

_____ (5) Without prejudice to the exercise of any powers by the Securities and Futures Commission under the Securities and Futures Ordinance (_____ of 2002), the Monetary Authority may make such recommendations to the Securities and Futures Commission concerning any relevant individual in respect of the exercise of the power under section 189A or 190 of that Ordinance as he considers appropriate.²⁷

²⁶ Procedural requirement : same as that under the new clause 191(2) of the Securities and Futures Bill.

Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

²⁷ A new subsection added to enable the Monetary Authority to make recommendations to the SFC in respect of front-line staff of registered institutions~~exempt AIs~~. A similar provision has been added to the Securities and Futures Bill (the new clause 189A(7)) to enable the SFC to make similar recommendations to the Monetary Authority. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

(b) an act or omission of the individual relating to the carrying on of any regulated activity -

(i) by the registered²⁸ institution in relation to which the individual is a relevant individual; and

(ii) which, in the opinion of the Monetary Authority, is or is likely to be prejudicial to the interest of the investing public or to the public interest, and "guilty of misconduct" (犯失當行為) shall be construed accordingly;²⁹

"relevant individual" (有關人士) means relevant individual within the meaning of section 20(10);

³⁰ The imprisonment arrangement is deleted in response to market comments. This is in line with the penalty level for a similar offence under the Banking Ordinance, e.g. failure to publish audited annual accounts under section 60(3) of the Banking Ordinance. This is also in line with the arrangement in the Securities and Futures Bill. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

(b) on summary conviction to a fine at tier 5 ~~and to imprisonment for 6 months~~³¹ and, in the case of a contravention of subsection (1), to a further fine at tier 2 for every day for which the institution fails to give the notice required under that subsection to the Monetary Authority."

This is not necessary since the “fit and proper” criteria already cover the concept of “competence” (see clause 128(1)(c) of the Securities and Futures Bill). ⁴² It is proposed that the Monetary Authority should be empowered to revoke or suspend the consent granted to an executive officer where such an officer is found guilty of misconduct or is no longer a fit and proper person. This is equivalent to the suspension and revocation of an approval granted to a responsible officer of a licensed corporation on the same grounds under clause 187 of the Securities and Futures Bill. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

(4B) The Monetary Authority shall not exercise his power under subsection (4) against an executive officer without first giving the officer an opportunity of being heard.⁴⁴

(4C) Where the Monetary Authority decides to exercise his power under subsection (4) against an executive officer, the Monetary Authority shall inform the officer of his decision to do so by notice in writing served on him, and the notice shall include -

- (a) a statement of the reasons for which the decision is made;
- (b) the time at which the decision is to take effect; and
- (c) in so far as applicable, the duration and terms of the withdrawal or suspension of the

⁴³ This subsection ensures that the Monetary Authority, in exercising his revocation/suspension power against an executive officer, can rely on information provided by the SFC, e.g. the findings of an SFC investigation. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

(5) Where the Monetary Authority -

- (a) has decided that he is satisfied that conditions need to be attached to a consent given under subsection (1), or that conditions attached to any such consent need to be amended;
- (b) has given to the executive officer not less than 7 days' advance notice of his decision, specifying his reasons, and accompanied by a copy of this section; and the Monetary Authority may, by notice in writing served on the executive officer and the institution, attach conditions to the consent, or amend conditions attached to the consent, as the case may be.

- (a) on conviction upon indictment to a fine at tier 7 and to imprisonment for 2 years; or

- (b) on summary conviction to a fine at tier 5 and to imprisonment for 6 months, and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine at tier 2 for every day during which the offence continues.

(7) A person shall not be regarded for the purposes of subsection (1) as becoming an executive officer of ~~an exempt authorized~~ a registered⁴⁷ institution if he is appointed to serve as an executive officer of it -

(8) In this section -

"misconduct" (失當行為), in relation to an executive officer, means -

(a) a contravention of any of the relevant provisions, within the meaning of Schedule 1 to the Securities and Futures Ordinance (_____ of 2002), which are applicable to the officer;

(b) a contravention of -

(i) any conditions attached under subsection (2)(b), or attached or amended under subsection (5), to the consent under subsection (1) which relates to the officer; or

(ii) any conditions attached or amended under section 71E(3) to the provisional consent under section 71E(1) which relates to the officer⁴⁸; or

(c) an act or omission of the officer relating to the carrying on of any regulated activity -

⁴⁸ The original proposed amendment considered by Members on 14 September 2001 only mentioned contravention of conditions attached under subsection 2(b) or attached/amended under subsection (5) to the consent under subsection (1) as one of the grounds for misconduct. We now further propose that contravention of conditions attached to provisional consent granted under section 71E(1) should also be a ground of misconduct. A new paragraph (ii) is added accordingly.

and "guilty of misconduct" (犯失當行為) shall be construed accordingly.⁵⁰

(9) Where any registered institution⁵¹ is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct within the meaning of paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of the definition of "misconduct" in section 186(1) of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (of 2002) as a result of the commission of any conduct occurring with the consent or connivance of, or attributable to any neglect on the part of, an executive officer of the institution, the conduct shall also be regarded as misconduct on the part of the officer, and "guilty of misconduct" shall

(1) Subject to section 71F, every registered⁵³ ~~exempt~~

executive officers -

(a) in the case of an institution - responsible for directly supervising the conduct of ~~the~~ each⁵⁴ business constitutes a regulated activity;

(ii) incorporated outside Hong Kong, to

⁵² This subsection effectively applies the revised clause 186(2) of Securities and Futures Bill to executive officers of registered institutions ~~exempt AIs~~ to render an executive officer responsible for the misconduct committed by the registered institutions ~~exempt AIs~~ concerned under certain circumstances. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

⁵³ All references to “exempt authorized institution” in the Bill are replaced by “registered institution”.

⁵⁴ At the Bills Committee meeting on 14 September 2001, members commented that it was unclear from the original drafting whether the requirement for appointing two executive officers was based on each regulated activity or each institution. This amendment clarifies that at least two executive officers must be appointed for each regulated activity of a registered institution. This requirement is the same as that in relation to responsible officers of licensed corporations. The same two executive officers may be appointed for more than one type of regulated activities provided that they are fit and proper for such appointment.

supervising the conduct of each⁵⁵ the business in Hong Kong conducted by the institution that constitutes a regulated activity; and

(b) each of whom shall be an individual.

~~(2) Every director and every manager of an exempt authorized institution which contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction upon indictment or on summary conviction to a fine at tier 5 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine at tier 2 for every day during which the offence continues.⁵⁶~~

71E. Grant of provisional consent in relation to persons seeking Monetary Authority's consent under section 71C(1) to be executive officers

(1) Where a person seeks the consent under section 71C(1) of the Monetary Authority to be an executive officer of an authorized institution, then the Monetary Authority may, upon the request of the person, and in his absolute discretion but subject to subsection (2), give provisional consent to the person to be such executive officer.

⁵⁵ Same rationale as Footnote (54).

⁵⁶ This subsection is deleted since it creates a double penalty for the same offence : the penalty for this offence is already provided for under clause 124(3) of the Securities and Futures Bill. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

(2) The Monetary Authority shall refuse to give provisional consent under subsection (1) to a person unless the person satisfies the Monetary Authority that the giving of the consent will not prejudice the interests of -

- (a) depositors or potential depositors of the registered⁵⁷ ~~exempt authorized~~ institution concerned; and
- (b) the investing public.

(3) The Monetary Authority may give provisional consent under subsection (1) to a person subject to such conditions as the Monetary Authority thinks proper to attach thereto, and the Monetary Authority may at any time, by notice in writing served on the person and the registered⁵⁸ ~~exempt authorized~~ institution concerned, attach conditions to the consent or amend conditions attached to the consent, as the case may be.

(3A) The attachment or amendment under subsection (3) of conditions shall take effect at the time of -

- (a) giving the provisional consent; or
- (b) service of the notice concerned under that subsection or at the time specified in the notice, whichever is the later,

as the case may be.⁵⁹

(4) A provisional consent given under subsection (1) to a person shall be deemed to be revoked when the person and the registered⁶⁰ ~~exempt authorized~~ institution concerned are given notice under section 71C(3) of the Monetary Authority's decision to give, or refuse to give, consent under section 71C(1) for the person to be an executive officer of the institution.

(5) The Monetary Authority may, having regard to the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of the registered⁶¹ ~~exempt authorized~~ institution concerned or of the investing public, and in his absolute discretion, withdraw provisional consent given under subsection (1) ~~to a person by giving notice in writing to the person and the institution withdrawing the consent to a person -~~

- (a) by giving notice in writing to the person and the institution withdrawing the consent;
- (b) with effect on such date as is specified in

⁵⁹ New subsection added to specify that the attachment of conditions to provisional consent and amendment of such conditions will take effect without following the usual procedure of waiting for appeal channels to be exhausted. This is identical to the arrangement for attachment of conditions and amendment of such conditions to the provisional approval of licensed representatives under clause 119(8) of the Securities and Futures Bill. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.

The Hong Kong Association of Banks has pointed out that this would result in practical problems since an exempt AI will be regarded as having contravened the requirement of having at least two executive officers appointed at all times once the provisional consent of one of its executive officers is withdrawn. It is considered reasonable to provide a grace period of 7 days in such cases so that the registered institution ~~exempt AI~~ in question can seek a replacement executive officer for appointment. Members considered this amendment and did not propose any further changes at the meeting on 14 September 2001.
