

PART XI

SECURITIES AND FUTURES APPEALS TRIBUNAL

* * * * *

(5) ~~The Tribunal may, w~~Where the Chief Executive considers appropriate, additional Tribunals may be established for the purposes of any review~~be divided into 2 or more divisions,~~—whereupon the provisions of this or any other Ordinance shall apply, subject to necessary modifications, to each ~~division of~~ such additional ~~the Tribunals~~ (including appointment of the chairman and other members of, ~~such division~~ and all matters concerning, each of such ~~division~~additional Tribunals) as they apply to the Tribunal.

<sup>1</sup> At the Bills Committee meeting on 10 December 2001, some Members expressed the view that the concept of “division” might cause confusion when in effect each “division” of the Tribunal operates independently as a Tribunal with the same powers and functions. We accordingly propose further amendment to Paper CSA10/01 to remove the reference to “division” and provide instead for the establishment of more than one Tribunal.

211. Applications for review of specified decisions

(3B) The Tribunal shall not grant an extension under subsection (3A) unless -

- (a) the person who has ~~made the application~~applied<sup>2</sup> for the grant of the extension pursuant to that subsection and the relevant authority have been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard; and
- (b) it is satisfied that there is a good cause for granting the extension.

(4) Where the Tribunal receives a notice ~~given to it~~<sup>2</sup> under subsection (1), it shall as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter serve a copy of the notice on the relevant authority.

* * * * *

<sup>2</sup> We propose further technical drafting amendments to Paper CSA10/01 in the light of the comment of a Member expressed at the Bills Committee meeting on 10 December 2001.

212. Proceedings before Tribunal

* * * * *

(4) Subject to section 214(3), the standard of proof required to determine any question or issue before the Tribunal shall be ~~that the standard of proof~~<sup>3</sup> applicable to civil proceedings in a court of law.

<sup>3</sup> We propose further technical drafting amendment to Paper CSA10/01 in the light of the comment of a Member expressed at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001 on clause 244(7), which is similar to this subclause.

213. Powers of Tribunal

(1) <sup>4</sup>Subject to the provisions of Part 1 of Schedule 7 and any rules made by the Chief Justice under section 226, the Tribunal, for the purposes of a review, may, on its own motion or on the application of any of the parties to the review -

- (a) receive and consider any material by way of oral evidence, written statements, ~~or~~ documents ~~or otherwise~~, even if the material would not be admissible in evidence in civil or criminal proceedings in a court of law;
- (b) by notice in writing signed by the chairman of the Tribunal require a person to attend before it at any sitting ~~relating to the review~~ and to give evidence and produce any article, record or document in his possession relating to the subject matter of the review;

* * * * *

- (j) determine the procedure to be followed in ~~connection with the review~~;

* * * * *

<sup>4</sup> We propose further technical drafting amendments to Paper CSA10/01 in the light of the comment of a Member expressed at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001 on clause 245(1), which is similar to this subclause.

214. Contempt dealt with by Tribunal

* * * * *

(4) <sup>5</sup>Notwithstanding anything in this section and any other provisions of this Ordinance -

(a) no power ~~to punish for contempt~~ may be exercised ~~against any person under or pursuant to this section to determine whether to punish any person for contempt~~ in respect of any conduct if -

(i) criminal proceedings have previously been instituted against the person under section 213(2) in respect of the same conduct; and

(ii) (A) those criminal proceedings remain pending; or

(B) by reason of the previous institution of those criminal proceedings, no criminal

<sup>5</sup> We propose further drafting amendments to Paper CSA10/01 in the light of the comment of a Member expressed at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001 on clause 253, which is similar to this subclause. The amendment seeks to clarify the operation of the “no double jeopardy” rule that the provision should apply whether the person concerned has been convicted or acquitted. The original reference to the Court’s power to punish for contempt should accordingly be to the Court’s power to initiate action to determine whether to punish for contempt.

proceedings may again be lawfully instituted against that person under such section in respect of the same conduct;

(b) no criminal proceedings may be instituted against any person under section 213(2) in respect of any conduct if -

(i) any power ~~to punish for contempt~~ has previously been exercised ~~against~~ ~~the person under or pursuant to~~ this section to determine whether to punish the person for contempt in respect of the same conduct; and

(ii) (A) proceedings arising from the exercise of such power remain pending; or

(B) by reason of the previous exercise of such power, no power ~~to punish for contempt~~ may again be lawfully exercised ~~against~~ ~~that person under or pursuant to~~ this section to determine whether to punish the person for contempt in respect of the same conduct.

220A.Applications for stay of decisions of Tribunal<sup>6</sup>

A party to a review may, at any time after the determination of the review, apply to the Tribunal for a stay of a decision of the Tribunal relating to the review, whereupon the Tribunal may, where it considers appropriate, by order grant the stay, subject to such conditions as to costs, payment of money into the Tribunal or otherwise as the Tribunal considers appropriate.

221. Appeal to Court of Appeal

(1) A party to a review who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Tribunal relating to the review ~~(whether or not it is a finding or determination in respect of the review, or an order made under section 211(3A), 216 or 220)~~<sup>7</sup> may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision on a point of law.

<sup>6</sup> When Paper CSA10/01 was considered at the Bills Committee meeting on 10 December 2001, a Member commented that the SFAT should have the discretion to order stay of its own decision if it is likely that an appeal against its decision will be lodged and if the SFAT considers a stay appropriate. We accordingly propose a new clause 220A to this effect.

<sup>7</sup> On reflection, we take the view that the bracketed non-exhaustive elaboration adds nothing to the meaning of “a decision”, as the term would no doubt cover a finding or determination in respect of the review, an order made under clauses 211(3A), 216 and 220, and other decisions. We therefore propose this further amendment to Paper CSA10/01 for brevity. Similar amendment is also proposed to clause 222.

<sup>5</sup>(2A) Where the Court of Appeal varies, or substitutes any other decision for, ~~the a decision in question~~ under subsection (2)(ba), the decision ~~in question~~ as varied or the other decision substituting for the decision ~~in question~~ (as the case may be) may be any decision (whether more or less onerous) that the Tribunal had power to make in respect of the review in question, whether or not under the same provision as that under which the decision ~~in question~~ has been made.

222. No stay of execution on appeal

<sup>6</sup>Without prejudice to section 220A, ~~t~~The lodging of an appeal under section 221 does not by itself operate as a stay of execution of a decision of the Tribunal ~~(whether or not it is a finding or determination in respect of a review, or an order made under section 211(3A), 216 or 220)~~<sup>7</sup> unless the Court of Appeal otherwise orders, and any stay of execution may be subject to such conditions as to costs, payment of money into

<sup>8</sup> We propose further drafting amendments to Paper CSA10/01 in the light of the comment of a Member expressed at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001 on clause 258, which is similar to this subclause. The deletion of "in question" proposed here would not distort the meaning of this provision.

MARKET MISCONDUCT TRIBUNAL

243. Market Misconduct Tribunal

(6) Schedule 8 shall have effect in relation to the appointment of members ~~and replacement members~~<sup>1</sup> of the Tribunal, the appointment and the role of Presenting Officers and of persons appointed to assist Presenting Officers, and to the proceedings and sittings of, and procedural and other matters concerning, the Tribunal.

<sup>1</sup> Amendment consequential to the proposed amendments to delete the definition of “replacement member” in Schedule 8 in the light of the comment made by a Member at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001.

(7) ~~The Tribunal may, w~~Where the Chief Executive considers appropriate, ~~be divided into 2 or more divisions~~additional Tribunals may be established for the purposes of any proceedings instituted under section 244<sup>2</sup>, whereupon the provisions of this or any other Ordinance shall apply, subject to necessary modifications, to each ~~division of the~~ of such additional<sup>2</sup> Tribunals (including appointment of the chairman and other members of, ~~such division~~ and all matters concerning, each of such division additional Tribunals<sup>2</sup>) as they apply to the Tribunal.

* * * * *

<sup>2</sup> At the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001, some Members commented that the concept of "division" might cause confusion when in effect each "division" of the Tribunal operates independently as a Tribunal with the same powers and functions. We accordingly propose further amendment to Paper No. CSA12/01 to remove the reference to "division" and provide instead for the establishment of more than one Tribunal.

244. Market misconduct proceedings

* * * * *

(4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the Tribunal may identify a person as having engaged in market misconduct pursuant to subsection (3)(b) if -

* * * * *

(b) notwithstanding that he has not perpetrated any conduct which constitutes the market misconduct

(i) the Tribunal identifies another person which is a corporation as having engaged in market misconduct pursuant to subsection (3)(b); and

<sup>4</sup> Technical drafting amendment in response to the comment made by a Member at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001.

245. Powers of Tribunal

(1) Subject to the provisions of Schedule 8 and any rules made by the Chief Justice under section 260, the Tribunal, for the purposes of any proceedings instituted under section 244, may, on its own motion or on the application of any party before it -

- (a) receive and consider any material by way of oral evidence, written statements ~~7~~ or documents ~~or otherwise~~<sup>5</sup>, even if the material would not be admissible in evidence in civil or criminal proceedings in a court of law;
- (b) by notice in writing signed by the chairman of the Tribunal require a person to attend before it at any sitting ~~relating to the proceedings~~<sup>6</sup> and to give evidence and produce any article, record or document in his possession relating to the subject matter of the proceedings;

<sup>5</sup> Members questioned at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001 whether the words “or otherwise” were necessary. Given the wide definition of “document” in Schedule 1, we agree that “or otherwise” can be deleted.

249. Orders, etc. of Tribunal

* * * * *

(5A) Where the Tribunal makes an order under subsection (1)(e) or (f) requiring the payment of costs as costs reasonably incurred in relation or incidental to any proceedings instituted under section 244——

~~(a)~~ subject to any rules made by the Chief Justice under section 260, Order 62 of the Rules of High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg.) applies to the taxation of the costs; ~~and~~—

~~(b) the Tribunal may order that the costs shall be taxed on the basis of one of the scales of costs in the Schedules to Order 62 of the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg.).~~<sup>8</sup>—

<sup>8</sup> At the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001, a Member queried if clause 249(5A)(b) in Paper No. CSA12/01 dated 3 December 2001 was necessary. Having reviewed the matter with our legal adviser, we believe that clause 249(5A)(b) should be covered by clause 249(5A)(a) and hence can be deleted. We also propose to delete clauses 250(5A)(b) and 252(4), which are the same as clause 249(5A)(b).

250. Further orders in respect of officers of corporation

* * * * *

(5A) Where the Tribunal makes under subsection (1) an order referred to in section 249(1)(e) or (f) requiring the payment of costs as costs reasonably incurred in relation or incidental to any proceedings instituted under section 244—1

~~(a)~~ subject to any rules made by the Chief Justice under section 260, Order 62 of the Rules of High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg.) applies to the taxation of the costs; ~~and~~1

~~(b) the Tribunal may order that the costs shall be taxed on the basis of one of the scales of costs in the Schedules to Order 62 of the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg.)<sup>8</sup>.~~1

* * * * *

252. Costs

* * * * *

~~(4) The Tribunal may order that any costs awarded under this section shall be taxed on the basis of one of the scales of costs in the Schedules to Order 62 of the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg.).<sup>8</sup>~~

* * * * *

253. Contempt dealt with by Tribunal

* * * * *

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section and any other provisions of this Ordinance -

(a) no power ~~to punish for contempt~~ may be exercised ~~against any person~~ under or pursuant to this section to determine whether to punish any person for contempt<sup>9</sup> in respect of any conduct if -

(i) criminal proceedings have previously been instituted against the person under section 245(2), 246(6), 249(9) or 250(9) in respect of the same conduct; and

(ii) (A) those criminal proceedings remain pending; or

<sup>9</sup> At the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001, a Member questioned whether the word "exercised" would cover the case where the person had been tried but subsequently acquitted. The amendment seeks to clarify the operation of the "no double jeopardy" rule that the provision should apply whether the person concerned has been convicted or acquitted. The original reference to the Court's power to punish for contempt should accordingly be to the Court's power to initiate action to determine whether to punish for contempt.

(B) by reason of the previous institution of those criminal proceedings, no criminal proceedings may again be lawfully instituted against that person under such section in respect of the same conduct;

(b) no criminal proceedings may be instituted against any person under section 245(2), 246(6), 249(9) or 250(9) in respect of any conduct if -

(i) any power ~~to punish for contempt~~ has previously been exercised against the person under or pursuant to this section to determine whether to punish the person for contempt<sup>9</sup> in respect of the same conduct; and

(ii) (A) proceedings arising from the exercise of such power remain pending; or

(B) by reason of the previous exercise of such power, no power ~~to punish for contempt~~ may again be lawfully exercised ~~against that person~~ under or pursuant to this section to determine whether to punish the person for contempt<sup>9</sup> in respect of the same conduct.

<sup>10</sup>256A. Applications for stay of orders of Tribunal under section 249, 250, 251 or 252

Any person in respect of whom an order has been made under section 249, 250, 251 or 252 may apply to the Tribunal for a stay of the order, whereupon the Tribunal may, where it considers appropriate, by order grant the stay, subject to such conditions as to costs, payment of money into the Tribunal or otherwise as the Tribunal considers appropriate.

<sup>10</sup> In response to the comment made by a Member at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001, we propose new clause 256A to provide the MMT with the flexibility to stay its own orders where it considers appropriate.

257. Appeal to Court of Appeal

* * * * *

(2) A person in respect of whom an order has been made under section 249, 250, 251~~-or-~~, 252 or 256A<sup>11</sup> may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the order.

---

<sup>11</sup> Technical drafting amendment to allow for appeal to the Court of Appeal against a decision of the MMT to grant or refuse to grant a stay of execution of its orders. This amendment is consequential to the insertion of new clause 256A.

258. Powers of Court of Appeal on appeal

* * * * *

(2) In an appeal under section 257(2), the Court of Appeal may -

- (a) confirm, vary or set aside the order appealed against; and
- (b) where the order is set aside, substitute ~~another for the order any other order~~ it considers appropriate ~~(whether more or less onerous), being any order that the Tribunal had power to make in respect of the appellant, whether or not under the same provision as that under which the order has been made~~<sup>12</sup>.

<sup>12</sup>(2A) Where the Court of Appeal varies, or substitutes any other finding or, determination or order for, ~~the a finding or, determination or order in question~~ under subsection (1)(ba) or (2)(a) or (b), the finding or, determination or order ~~in question~~ as varied or the other finding or, determination or order substituting for the finding or, determination or order ~~in question~~ (as the case may be) may be =

<sup>12</sup> Technical amendment to Paper No. CSA12/01 dated 3 December 2001 for greater clarity. The relocation of "whether more or less onerous ...." from clause 258(2)(b) to new clause 258(2A)(b) is consistent with the drafting of clause 258(1)(ba). The Law Draftsman has also further refined the drafting of clause 258(2A) in the light of the comments made by a Member at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001.

(a) in the case of subsection (1)(ba), any finding or determination (whether more or less onerous) that the Tribunal had power to make for the purposes of the proceedings in question;~~i or~~

(b) in the case of subsection (2)(a) or (b), any order (whether more or less onerous) that the Tribunal had power to make in respect of the appellant, whether or not under the same provision as that under which the finding ~~or~~, determination or order ~~in question~~ has been made.

<sup>13</sup>(2B) Where on appeal the Court of Appeal remits any matter to the Tribunal under section 258(1)(c), ~~without limiting the generality of that section, unless~~ the Court of Appeal otherwise directs, ~~may direct that the matter in question, upon being remitted to the Tribunal, shall be disposed of by~~

~~(a) the same members of the Tribunal disposing of the matter may be the same as, or different from, those of the Tribunal from which the appeal in question lies;~~ ~~or.~~

<sup>13</sup> In response to the comments made by a Member at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001, we have further refined the drafting to provide for the possibility that the “same Tribunal” may not be reconstituted as certain members are no longer available.

~~(b) the Tribunal constituted in such manner as the Court of Appeal considers appropriate.~~

~~<sup>14</sup>(2C) Where, upon a matter being remitted to it under section 258(1)(c), the Tribunal is constituted in accordance with the terms of any direction given by the Court of Appeal under subsection (2B), the validity of the proceedings before the Tribunal shall not be called into question by reason only that members of the Tribunal are not the same as those of the Tribunal from which the appeal in question lies.~~

<sup>14</sup> We proposed to add new clause 258(2C) in Paper No. CSA12/01 dated 3 December 2001, to complement new clause 258 (2B) and to remove any doubt as to the validity of the proceedings of the “different” MMT constituted in accordance with the direction of the Court of Appeal. Members commented at the Bills Committee meeting on 14 December 2001 that clause 258(2C) might not be necessary. Given the latest amendments to clause 258(2B), we agree that clause 258(2C) may be deleted.

259. No stay of execution on appeal

<sup>15</sup>Without prejudice to section 256A, neither the lodging of an appeal nor the filing of an application for leave to appeal under section 257 by itself operates as a stay of execution of a finding or determination or an order (as the case may be) of the Tribunal unless the Court of Appeal otherwise orders, and any stay of execution may be subject to such conditions as to costs, payment of money into the Tribunal or otherwise as the Court of Appeal considers appropriate.

* * * * *

<sup>15</sup> Technical amendment consequential to the insertion of new clause 256A.

272. Civil liability for market misconduct

* * * * *

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall, subject to subsection (4), be regarded as having committed a relevant act in relation to market misconduct if -

* * * * *

- (b) (i) another person which is a corporation has committed a relevant act in relation to market misconduct under paragraph (a); and <sup>2</sup> In the light of the comment of the Legal Service Division of the Legislative Council, we have reviewed the application of the definitions of "dealing in futures contracts" and "dealing in securities" and propose this further amendment to Paper CSA16/01. This additional amendment is of technical nature and seeks to rectify the inadvertent extension of the exclusions in the definitions in Schedule 6, which are tailored for the purposes of licensing regulated activities, to the general definition.
