220. Applications for stay of execution of¹ specified decisions

(1A) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), the making of an application for review does not by itself operate as a stay of execution of¹ the specified decision to which the application relates.

(1) A person who has made an application for review or an application pursuant to section 211(3A) may, at any time before the review or the application (as the case may be) is determined by the Tribunal, apply to the Tribunal for a stay of execution of¹ the specified decision to which the application relates.

¹ Technical amendment in response to the comment made by the Legal Service Division of the Legislative Council to clarify that it is the execution of the decision, instead of the decision itself, that is to be stayed.

(2) On an application made under subsection (1), the Tribunal shall as soon as reasonably practicable conduct a hearing to determine the application, and may, where it considers appropriate, by order grant a stay of execution of¹ the specified decision to which the application relates, subject to such conditions as to costs, payment of money into the Tribunal or otherwise as the Tribunal considers appropriate.

220A. Applications for stay of execution of¹
decisions of Tribunal

A party to a review may, at any time after the determination of the review, apply to the Tribunal for a stay of execution of¹ a decision of the Tribunal relating to the review, whereupon the Tribunal may, where it considers appropriate, by order grant the stay, subject to such conditions as to costs, payment of money into the Tribunal or otherwise as the Tribunal considers appropriate.
