

Legislative Council Bills Committee

Copyright (Suspension of Amendments) Bill 2001

Committee Stage Amendments (Revised)

Purpose

This paper provides explanation for the new amendments included in the revised committee stage amendments (Annex) to the Copyright (Suspension of Amendments) Bill 2001.

Amendments to Clauses 2(2)(a) and (b)

2. Clauses 2(2)(a) and (b) provide that Clause 2(1) does not apply to a movie or television drama “that has been published or intended to be published in Hong Kong or elsewhere”. A Member considered that the expression “that has been published or intended to be published in Hong Kong or elsewhere” can be deleted. The purpose of the expression is to stipulate that the works concerned include unscreened works. Having consulted legal advice, we agree that the expression can be deleted without causing any confusion.

Clause 2D

3. The original Clause 3A has become Clause 2D. Besides, a minor technical amendment is made to Clause 3A(b) to provide a more precise description of the computer program concerned i.e. the computer program should not just relate to a copyright work but should incorporate the whole or any part of that copyright work.

Amendment to Clause 2(3)

4. In view of Clause 2D, we suggest that a technical amendment be made to Clause 2(3).
