

4. Statutory repossession procedures

Time Chart

Repossession of Premises for Non-payment of Rent where a Notice of Opposition has been filed
(Lands Tribunal – existing relief period)

Note:

1. The Chart illustrates a straightforward case, which takes a total of 103 days, during which period an order is granted in about 35 days from the application date. The same process can however, take longer time depending on the circumstances of the case.
2. A relief period of 4 weeks will be granted following the order.

4. Statutory repossession procedures

Time Chart

Repossession of Premises for Non-payment of Rent where a notice of Opposition has not been filed

(Default Order in Lands Tribunal with no relief period)

Note:

The Chart illustrates a straightforward case, which takes a total of 75 days, during which period an order is granted in about 28 days from the application date. The same process can however, take longer time depending on the circumstances of the case.