WRITTEN/SUPPLEMENTARY QUESTION

Head : 142 – Government Secretariat: Offices of the Chief Secretary for Administration and the Financial Secretary

Subhead (No. & title) :

Programme : (1) Efficiency Unit

Controlling Officer : Director of Administration

Bureau Secretary : Director of Administration

Question : In its reply to Question Serial No. 0974, the Administration pointed out that the Integrated Call Centre for Environmental Hazards and Cleanliness to be set up would, by 2002-03, take over the relevant services currently provided by 16 departments. Does this mean that the 16 departments will reduce some of their manpower (for example, through redundancy, natural wastage and transfer)? If yes, how many posts will be reduced?

Asked by : Hon Leung Yiu-chung

Reply : When the Integrated Call Centre (ICC) completely takes over the call-handling functions relating to environmental hazards and cleanliness from the 16 participating departments, expected in 2002-03, the posts that are identified for this purpose in these departments will be deleted or re-deployed. By that time, the staff involved will have been either transferred to the ICC after retraining or re-deployed within the civil service. The guiding principle is that there will not be any staff redundancy arising from the implementation of the ICC project.

We do not have the definite number of posts to be reduced in the 16 participating departments at this stage because the distribution and deployment of staff resources on handling calls relating to environmental hazards and cleanliness and other calls in these departments have yet to be confirmed. We are currently reviewing the call-handling processes and mode of operation of these participating departments and designing the new mode of operation for the ICC. The actual number of posts to be reduced in these departments would not be known until the ICC is fully set up.

Head 94 Legal Aid Department Sub-head (No. & title) :

Programme : (2) Litigation Services

Controlling Officer : Director of Legal Aid

Bureau Secretary : Director of Administration

Question : How much interest was earned in 2000-01 in respect of damages received by the Legal Aid Department on behalf of the aided persons?

Asked by : Hon Albert HO Chun-yan

Reply : Moneys received on behalf of aided persons are released to them as much as possible and as soon as they are received so the question of interest does not arise in such instances. A sufficient portion of these moneys to cover the costs liable to be reimbursed by the aided persons is retained by the Director of Legal Aid and kept in the Treasury. Once the amount of the costs liable to be reimbursed has been ascertained, moneys remaining due and payable will be released to the aided persons.

The Legal Aid Ordinance does not presently provide for the payment of interest to aided persons on amount so retained by the Director of Legal Aid so the Department does not have records on interest earned, if any, from these amounts.
