Paper for the House Committee meeting
on 20 October 2000

Review of the Terms of Reference of LegCo Panels

Purpose

This paper sets out the proposed changes to the terms of reference of each of the 17 current Panels based on the discussion of the House Committee at its meeting on 13 October 2000 and the initial consultation with policy bureaux of the Government.

Background

2. There are 17 Panels formed by resolution of the Legislative Council in its first term with the following common terms of reference:

- (a) to monitor and examine relevant Government policies and issues of public concern;
- (b) to provide a forum for the exchange and dissemination of relevant policy matters;
- (c) to receive briefings and to formulate views on any major legislative or financial proposals in the relevant policy area(s) prior to their formal introduction to the Council or Finance Committee; and
- (d) to examine and to report on any major issues of wide public concern in the relevant policy area(s) as referred by the Council or House Committee or as raised by the Panel itself.

The names of individual Panels, the corresponding bureau/body in the Government and the respective policy areas covered by each Panel are separately set out in the Schedule to the resolutions passed by the Council.

3. While the functions of a Panel should remain the same, it was suggested at the House Committee meeting on 13 October 2000 that the terms of reference of individual Panels should be worded in a manner appropriate to individual circumstances, taking into account recent reshuffling of responsibilities among different bureaux. The Secretariat was also requested to consult the Administration on the delineation of responsibility within Government bureaux in respect of women matters, such as the Women's Commission.

Matters for consideration

4. Apart from incorporating the changes endorsed by the House Committee on 13 October 2000 in relation to the terms of reference of the Panel on Trade and Industry (to be renamed as Panel on Commerce and Industry) and the Panel on Economic Services, the following new changes are proposed for members' consideration:

(a) Panel on Administration of Justice and Legal Services

The Administration Wing of the Chief Secretary for Administration's Office be included as one of the corresponding bureaux/bodies of the Panel to reflect the practice that Director of Administration will be invited to attend Panel meetings on policy matters within the Panel's terms of reference and which are under the Director of Administration's responsibility.

(b) Technical amendments

The terms of reference of each Panel be set out separately as in the Appendix and the wording be refined to reflect the provisions in Rule 77(3) and 77(14) of the Rules of Procedure.

5. Regarding the responsibility for women matters, the Administration has advised that women matters including UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, APEC Ministerial Meeting on Women, Women Leaders' Network and the Women's Commission have been transferred from the Home Affairs Bureau to the Health and Welfare Bureau. On the Panel side, women matters are currently under the purview of the Panel on Home Affairs. Members may wish to consider whether there is a need to make a corresponding change to the terms of reference of the relevant Panels.

6. In order to allow other Government bureaux to have a chance to comment on the terms of reference, we are now in the process of consulting all bureaux through the Director of Administration.

Decision sought

7. Members are requested to consider:
 - (a) the proposed changes described in paragraph 4 and the terms of reference in the Appendix; and
 - (b) which Panel should take up the responsibility for monitoring Government policy relating to women matters.

8. Subject to members' decision and views from the Administration, the Secretariat would proceed with the drafting of the resolution to implement changes to the terms of reference of Panels. In accordance with past practice, the resolution will be moved by Hon Mrs Selina CHOW LIANG Shuk-ye, Chairman of the House Committee, at a Council meeting.
