

Panel on Constitutional Affairs

System of accountability for principal officials

Revised list of issues for public consultation

- (a) a proposed system under which the accountability of principal officials/ministers can be enhanced;
- (b) the system of appointment and removal of principal officials/ministers under the proposed system, e.g. authority of appointment and removal, conditions and term of office; the role of LegCo in the process of appointment and removal; under what circumstances should a principal official/minister be penalized or dismissed;
- (c) the powers and responsibilities of principal officials/ministers; their role in formulating and implementing government policies;
- (d) the administrative and financial arrangements for terminating the service of existing civil servants and re-appointing them as principal officials/ministers under the proposed system;
- (e) pros and cons of appointing principal officials/ministers from within or outside the civil service;
- (f) the relationship of principal officials/ministers with the Executive Council and the civil service;
- (g) should consideration be given to electing CE by universal suffrage before implementing the proposed system; whether the proposed system will be different if CE is returned by universal suffrage, and if so, in what ways;
- (h) how can the independence of regulatory bodies such as Securities and Futures Commission and Hong Kong Monetary Authority and the editorial autonomy of Radio Television Hong Kong be guaranteed so that they are free from political intervention under the proposed system; and
- (i) any other related issues

(Note : proposed changes are in italic and underlined)