

Paper No. CB(2)650/00-01(12)

(English translation prepared by the Legislative Council Secretariat for Members' reference only)

(Letterhead of the Hong Kong Women Christian Council)

5 January 2001

To : Legislative Council Secretariat,
Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

Opinions on legislation against stalking

We are of the view that the Government should legislate against stalking as soon as possible with a view to protecting women, particularly the battered wives in Hong Kong, from harassment. In order to uphold the freedom of the press, the anti-stalking legislation may, among other things, provide for exemptions so that journalists will not be subject to undue restrictions in their work.

Hong Kong Women Christian Council