INTRODUCTION

Section 29A of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap. 1) empowers the Financial Secretary (which means also the Secretary for the Treasury by virtue of section 3 of Cap. 1) to vary fees which have previously been fixed by subsidiary legislation made by the Chief Executive in Council.

2. In exercise of this power, the Secretary for the Treasury has made the ----- Amendment Regulation at Annex A to revise the fees specified in the Bills of Sale (Fees) Regulations made pursuant to the Bills of Sale Ordinance (Cap. 20).

3. The Chief Justice, the District Court Rules Committee, the Rules Committee of the High Court and the Court of Final Appeal Rules Committee have made five ----- Amendment Rules at Annexes B to F to revise the fees specified in the following subsidiary legislation -

- (a) Coroners (Fees) Rules made under the Coroners Ordinance (Cap. 504);
- (b) District Court Civil Procedure (Fees) Rules made under the District Court Ordinance (Cap. 336);
- (c) High Court Fees Rules made under the High Court Ordinance (Cap. 4);
- (d) Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal Fees Rules made under the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal Ordinance (Cap. 484); and
- (e) Small Claims Tribunal (Fees) Rules made under the Small Claims Tribunal Ordinance (Cap. 338).

BACKGROUND AND ARGUMENT

4. Judiciary fees and charges are charged in connection with the services provided by various courts/tribunals in legal proceedings, such as commencement of a legal cause or matter in various courts and tribunals, setting down a case for trial, execution of court decisions etc. Most of them were last revised in 1994.

5. It is Government policy that certain fees should in general be set at levels sufficient to recover the full costs of providing the services. Most Government fees and charges have been frozen since February 1998 as an exceptional measure to ease the burden on the community at a time of economic setback. The Financial Secretary decided in June 1999 to continue the fee revision moratorium until the year-on-year quarterly GDP growth rate turned firmly positive. In view of the current state of economic recovery, the Administration consulted the LegCo Panel on Financial Affairs on 13 April 2000 on proposals to revise various fees that would not directly affect people's livelihood or general business activities. Taking into account the diverse nature of the fees involved, Members suggested and the LegCo House Committee agreed on 14 April 2000 that the Administration should consult the relevant subject LegCo Panels on whether and if so how the fees under their respective purview should be adjusted.

6. We then consulted the LegCo Panel on Financial Affairs on 15 June 2000 regarding the revision of fees and charges under the purview of the Secretary for the Treasury. For the judiciary fees and charges under the aforesaid Regulation and Rules, the latest costing exercise shows that their existing fees, including the scale of fees charged by various courts/tribunals, can recover about 92% of the costs^(Note) at 2000-01 prices. Annex G provides the cost computation. We propose to increase the fee levels by 8.5% in general with a view to achieving full-cost recovery at 2000-01 prices. Members of the Panel did not raise objection to the proposal. Details of the existing and proposed fees are set out at Annex H.

THE REGULATION/RULES

7. The Amendment Regulation/Rules revise various judiciary fees and charges as set out at Annex H. We propose that the new fees should come into effect on 12 January 2001.

^(Note) In view of the diverse nature of the services provided by various courts/tribunals and the large number of fee items involved, the Judiciary has since 1989 calculated the cost of its services provided on a global basis. In other words, costs are calculated at the departmental level instead of at the individual service level.

EFFICIENCY INITIATIVES

8. The Judiciary is committed to containing the costs incurred in providing services by continuing to implement the Enhanced Productivity Programme and other efficiency improvement measures as appropriate and to review whether it is still necessary to provide various services under the Judiciary's purview that require payment of fees and charges.

HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS

9. The Department of Justice advises that the Amendment Regulation and Rules have no human rights implications.

BINDING EFFECT

10. The Amendment Regulation and Rules will not affect the current binding effects of the relevant Regulation and Rules.

FINANCIAL AND STAFFING IMPLICATIONS

11. The fee proposal will generate additional revenue of about $6 million per annum. There are no staffing implications.

ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS

12. The proposed fee increases should have no significant economic impact.

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

13. There is no public consultation on the proposed fee revisions as the fee increases should have little effect on the public at large. The users of the services are unlikely to raise strong objection as the increases are fairly modest in money terms (i.e. in a range from $0.5 to $180).

PUBLICITY

14. The Amendment Regulation/Rules will be published in the Gazette on 24 November 2000. A press release to announce the fee revision will be issued on the same day.
