Companies (Amendment) Bill 2002

Follow-up actions arising from the discussion at the meeting on 15 October 2002

Introduction

This paper sets out the outcome of the follow-up actions arising from the discussion at the meeting on 15 October 2002.

Threshold for shareholders' proposals

2. Section 115A of the Companies Ordinance provides that on request by shareholders of not less than 5% of the voting rights or not less than 100 shareholders holding shares on which there has been paid up an average sum of not less than $2,000 per person, the company must circulate the requisitionists' proposal to shareholders entitled to notice of general meetings. Whilst recognising that the existing regime is sound, the Standing Committee on Company Law Reform (SCCLR) considers that the threshold in respect of shareholders is high and recommends a reduction to 2.5% of the voting rights or 50 shareholders, which is consistent with its earlier recommendation to reduce the threshold for requisitioning meetings from 10% to 5% (such recommendation already implemented under the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 2000).

3. In its deliberations, the SCCLR has had regard to the issue of costs incurred in circulating shareholders' proposals and noted that the requisitionists have to bear the costs, but as the materials are sent to the shareholders together with the company's annual reports, such costs are reduced. We do not have information on the costs in past cases, but attach a note at Annex A on possible costs to be incurred by a listed company in circulating a notice of resolution or statement before an annual general meeting.

Review of the Companies Ordinance

4. A note on the implementation of the recommendations from the review of the Companies Ordinance is attached at Annex B for Members' reference.

Right to resort to court under section 8 of the Ordinance

5. After conducting research on the Hong Kong Law Reports and Digest (from 1905 up to now), Registrar of Companies cannot locate any case involving an application made to the court under section 8 of the Ordinance.

Companies (Amendment) Bill 2002

Implementation of the Recommendations arising from the Review of Companies Ordinance

The 62 recommendations arising from the Review of the Companies Ordinance are grouped under four Phases. 40 of these recommendations relate to legislative amendments, while 22 recommendations state that certain subjects should be further studied or reviewed. The details of the 62 items are set out in the following table.

2. Of the 40 proposals relating to legislative changes –
 - ☒ 18 (items 1-17 under Phase I and item 17 under Phase IV) have already been included in the Companies (Amendment) Bill 2002;
 - ☒ 3 (items 2, 3 and 4 under Phase III) are intended to be included in the Companies (Amendment) Bill 2003;
 - ☒ 6 items require further study because they carry extensive legal implications (item 1 under Phase III); or that members of the public have indicated objection to the proposal (item 19 under Phase II); or have been subsumed under Phase II of SCCLR's Corporate Governance Review (CGR) (items 5 and 11 under Phase II); or require further analysis before drafting instructions could be prepared (items 14 and 17 under Phase II). The draft legislation would be prepared once the further studies have been completed.
 - ☒ 13 items involve restructuring of the Companies Ordinance (items 1 to 11, 16 and 18 under Phase IV). This restructuring seeks to improve the overall organization of the Ordinance as well as rewriting it in plain language. At this stage, we do not have a definite implementation timetable for these relatively less urgent items.

3. Of the 22 items for further study or research –

CE 8 have been subsumed under SCCLR's CGR Phase II (items 1 to 4, 6, 8 12 and 13 under Phase II). The Review is now at an advanced stage and we expect SCCLR to firm up its recommendations in the near future.

CE The study on 4 items (items 9 and 10 under Phase II) has been completed. We intend to include 2 legislative changes in the Companies (Amendment) Bill 2003; SCCLR has decided not to proceed with 2 other items (items 16 and 18 under Phase II).

CE The review on 6 items (items 7 and 15 in Phase II, 5-8 in Phase III) is in progress, and we hope to complete it in 2003. The review on 2 other items (items 14 and 15 in Phase IV) will commence at a later date.

CE 2 other items (items 12 and 13 under Phase IV) will be taken forward in the context of the major restructuring of the Companies Ordinance.
