Reducing threshold for shareholders' proposals	Mr David Webb (CB (1)2604/01-02)	Support the 2.5% threshold but not the details of the 50-holder threshold as it may not be fair to shareholders of companies with low par value relative to market value or net assets per share. Consideration should be given to requiring requisitionists to make a specific deposit to defray costs, at a fixed amount per registered shareholder. The deposit will be refunded if the proposed resolution receives the support of more than 5% by value of shares voted in general meeting.	This legislative proposal is based on the Standing Committee on Company Law Reform (SCCLR)'s recommendation that the threshold for circulating shareholders' proposals should be reduced from 5% to 2.5% of the voting rights or from 100 shareholders (holding shares on which there has been paid up an average sum of not less than $2,000 per person) to 50 shareholders. The existing reference to the paid-up sum is relatively simple and easy to understand. We do not consider it necessary to introduce the concept of net assets, which appear to change in value from time to time. On the proposal to add a deposit requirement to the Companies Ordinance, we are concerned that this would effectively mean that all shareholders of a company (instead of the requisitionists)

Subject/Clause	Organization/individual	Concern/View	Administration's Comments
			would need to meet the expenses of circulating the requisitionists' proposals. While our policy intent is to reduce the threshold for circulating the proposals, we do not consider it appropriate to relieve the requisitionists of the responsibility for bearing the expenses in question.
Removing directors by ordinary resolution	Mr David Webb Chinese General Chamber of Commerce (CGCC) (CB(1) 2610/01-02(01))	Support the proposal. Not agree to paragraph 7(c) of the Legal Service Division Report (LS 50/01-02) which states that the proposal may affect the readiness of directors to make hard decisions which are unpalatable to investors. Emphasize that decisions which are "unpalatable" to a majority of shareholders are generally decisions which are not in their best interest. There may be circumstances where directors of a company have to appoint/remove directors by special resolution which conflicts with the proposed ordinary resolution. Which resolution should then prevail.	Noted. This legislative proposal, if enacted, would prevail, i.e. a director of a company can be removed by an ordinary resolution instead of a special resolution.
Providing a statutory definition of "Shadow Director"	CGCC	Should specify the extent to and the details of which the threshold for "shadow director" is lowered.	The original definition of "shadow director" (in section 168C) refers to a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of a company

			are accustomed to act. The proposed definition refers to a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors or majority of the directors of the company are accustomed to act.
Extending the statutory provisions to cover in generic terms provision of financial assistance to directors	CGCC	The proposal may affect the financial flexibility of some companies, particularly those small and medium enterprises (SME) which usually operate on a tight capital.	This legislative proposal should not affect the financial flexibility of a company as the proposed prohibition applies to loans made to a director by the company but not vice-versa. Moreover, certain exceptions are already provided for in the new section 157HA e.g. the proposed prohibition does not prohibit a private company (other than one that is a member of a group of companies of which a company is a listed company in Hong Kong) from making a loan to its directors that has been approved by the company at a general meeting.
Permitting the formation of a company by one person	Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce (HKGCC) (CB(1) 2592/01-02)	Need to address problems arising from the death of the sole shareholder and director.	The possible problems arising from the death of the sole member and director of a one-member company are no different from those for a company with two or more members. Section 72 of the Ordinance provides that the production to a company of any document which is by law sufficient evidence of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate of a deceased person having been granted to

Subject/Clause	Organization/individual	Concern/View	Administration's Comments
			some person shall be accepted by the company, notwithstanding anything in its articles, as sufficient evidence of the grant. This section applies to the scenario of one-member company. We do not consider appropriate to further legislate in respect of such a scenario, which may impact on the established framework for the administration of a deceased's estate (as stipulated in the Probate and Administration Ordinance). Moreover, the existing approach under the Ordinance is consistent with those adopted in UK and Australia.
Authorization of electronic forms of publicity	HKGCC	To consider amending the relevant provisions, including section 74A, to enable the Registrar to approve websites as an alternative to newspapers.	The proposal entails a number of issues such as the public's access to information, who should be responsible for establishing the proposed website and the mechanics of doing so. It is more appropriate to deal with this proposal outside the Bill.
Specified forms	Society of Chinese Accountants & Auditors (SCAA) (CB(1) 2658/01-02)	Not able to comment on the impact of the proposed specified forms unless given the chance to review these forms.	The specified forms would be designed so as to contain the information specified in the corresponding provisions of the Ordinance. The draft forms were circulated earlier this year to the Companies Registry (CR)'s major customers and various professional bodies and their suggestions have been

			incorporated into the forms, where appropriate. As regards the existing specified form for the annual return (AR1), the Notes for Completion of the form contain a direction that the address to be given by the directors should be the usual residential address. The new specified form contains the same note and an additional direction that the residential addresses of directors have to be given.
Statutory declaration	SCAA	The proposed replacement of statutory declaration by written statement may give the public a wrong impression that there is a relaxation on the accuracy of information lodged with the Company Registry. Given that accuracy of information is of prime importance to certain sections in the Companies Ordinance, it is necessary for the Administration to assess the social impact of such changes. Meanwhile, the public should be made aware of the consequences of making a false statement.	We do not consider that the proposal would give the public the impression that there is a relaxation in the accuracy of information required to be filed under the Ordinance. Any person making a false statement in such a written statement may be prosecuted under section 349 of the Ordinance and, on conviction, subject to a maximum penalty of $100,000 and maximum imprisonment of 6 months.

Clause 2 Definition of "manager"	Law Society of Hong Kong (LS) (CB(1) 2340/01-02(02)) SCAA	Need to amend the wording to clarify whether "under the immediate authority of the board" includes for example someone who reports directly to the managing director. The definition is too general. Many employees of (SMEs), particularly those with single director, may become officers as the director concerned normally oversees most of the day-to-day operation of these organizations.	The definition of the term "manager" ¹ in clause 2(1)(b) aims to implement the SCCLR's recommendation that the term should mean the rank of executives immediately below and reporting to the board of directors of a company (and not executives at any rank in the company). The definition does not include a person who reports directly to the managing director.
Definition of "shadow director"	Lingnan University (LU) (CB(1) 2610/01-02(02)) Securities and Future Commission (SFC)	There may be circumstances that a person occupying a position under the immediate authority of the board of directors may not be called a "manager". Consideration should be given to expressly excluding bank	The definition of "manager" is wide enough to include a person who may not be called a "manager" so long as he occupies a position under the immediate authority of the board of directors. We do not consider it necessary to expressly exclude from the definition of

¹ The term "manager", in relation to a company, means a person occupying a position under the immediate authority of the board of directors but does not include –

- (a) a receiver or manager of the property of the company; or
- (b) a special manager of the estate or business of the company appointed under section 216.

The proposed definition of the term and the new section 2(2) should have the effect of excluding such bank representatives as they do not give the directors directions or instructions and they act in a professional capacity. In this legislative proposal, we consider it sufficient to rely on the literal meaning of the term "professional capacity". It is worth noting that this term exists in the definition for "shadow director" under section 168C of the Ordinance and other ordinances e.g. Banking Ordinance without a specific definition.
Clause 4	WHL	The proposed section 4(1) may run the risk of creating more unnecessary work for the Registrar and other relevant authorities in the event that the only director and shareholder of a company cannot be contacted.	In accordance with section 158 of the Ordinance, a company has to notify R of C of the particulars (including the usual residential address) of its director(s) and secretary, and any subsequent changes to the particulars within 14 days after their appointment or the change. This requirement applies to a company, irrespective of whether it has one member or more. Hence, R of C should not have any major difficulty corresponding with the director(s) of a one-member company.

Clause 5	LU	No need to provide for dissenting shareholders to apply to the court to cancel the alteration when the resolution has been passed by the majority. In appropriate circumstances, the dissenting shareholders may invoke section 168A.	This legislative proposal is based on the SCCLR's recommendation that the right of shareholders to apply to the court to annul alterations to the objects clause in a public company's constitution should be repealed having regard to the fact that such dissenting shareholders can always sell their shares in the company. The same factor does not however apply to private companies. Hence, the SCCLR has not recommended repealing the right of the shareholders of private companies. In any event, section 168A of the Ordinance can only be invoked if the interest of a shareholder is unfairly prejudiced.
Clause 7	Hong Kong Society of Accountants (HKSA) (CB(1) 42/02-03(03))	Suggest to further amend section 22 to extend the period within which the Registrar may direct a company to change its name from 12 months to five years to prevent possible abuses.	The existing 12-month period is sufficiently long for the affected companies to notify R of C of the existence of a company which bears a name which is the same as or too like a name in the CR's index of company names. Hence, we do not consider it necessary to further extend the period.
Clause 9	LU	The amendment has not added anything new to the existing law since there are many cases which have already clarified the meaning of section 23(1).	This amendment aims to implement the SCCLR's recommendation that it should be made clear in the law that every shareholder has a personal right to sue to

	Federation of Hong Kong Industries (FHKI) (CB(1)2645/01-02) Institute of Professional Development (IPD)	It is inappropriate to apply new section 23 to cover the situation whereby shareholders, particularly those minority shareholders, in private companies who fail to spell out their rights in joint agreements as this may distort the neutrally applied terms between the shareholders. While welcoming the introduction of the provision which will bring a degree of clarity in respect of the right of shareholders to take direct legal action to enforce the company memorandum and articles, proposed section 23 as drafted is too broad which may give rise to circumstances where enforcement by a minority shareholder is not in the interests of the company. To this end, there is a need to qualify shareholders' statutory right to enforce the provision. Consideration could be given to making the right of action subject to the reasonability of the behaviour of the shareholder in light of the alternative courses of action available. However, any statutory provision giving the court	enforce the terms of the memorandum and articles of association of the company. This legislative proposal relates to the memorandum and articles of association of the company only and should not affect the joint agreements mentioned. This legislative proposal is based on the SCCLR's recommendation that the ordinance should be amended to give every shareholder of a company a right to enforce the terms of memorandum and articles of association of the company. In the interest of shareholder protection, we do not consider it appropriate to restrict the ambit of the proposal as suggested .

As they touch on an area outside the scope of the Bill, it is more appropriate to deal with the issues raised by the HKGCC outside the Bill.
Clause 25	LS	Suggest to amend sub-clauses (1) and (2) such that notification is still required within 15 days of passing the resolution and, where appropriate, again on the resolution lapsing or becoming unconditional since there may be circumstances where someone searching the public register will want to know the passing of a resolution to increase capital, even if the increase will or may take place at a later date.	To streamline the procedure and simplify the filing requirement, we consider it appropriate to dispense with the existing requirement for filing a resolution that authorizes an increase in the share capital of a company. Instead, the company would be required to file a notice with the Registrar of Companies (R of C) of the increase within 15 days after the increase takes effect. These legislative changes are in line with the existing filing arrangements for matters relating to share capital such as consolidation of shares, conversion of shares into stock. It is also worth noting that if the resolution in question is passed by way of a special resolution ² , section 117 of the Ordinance still requires the special resolution to be filed.
Clause 26	Hong Kong Association	There should be an additional condition	Under the Ordinance, the court's approval

The SCCLR considers that such approval is not necessary where there is no distribution out of the company and shareholders are treated equally and fairly. It is worth noting that court approval (as in the case of a reduction in the share capital) is required in respect of any distribution from the share premium

	Mr Winston POON, SC (CB(1)94/02-03)	The clause as drafted seems to permit the reduction of the capital of a company for any purpose, including the elimination of losses, without the sanction of the Court provided that the four conditions set out in the provision are satisfied. This has failed to reflect the intention of the recommendation of the Standing Committee on Company Law Reform to ensure that the capital of a company is maintained for the protection of its creditors.	account. Hence, we do not consider it necessary to add the condition "no cash is paid out of the company" in the clause. We are reviewing the wording of the clause in the light of Mr Poon's comments.
Clause 31	WHL	The time limit of 10 business days for the completion of a transfer of shares by a public company is too tight. Suggest to extend the time limit to 15 business days or one month.	This legislative proposal is based on the SCCLR's recommendation that a strict time limit (i.e. 10 business days) should be stipulated for the completion of transfer of shares of public companies. The recommendation is made, having regard to the existing requirement of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong that registration of transfer of shares be completed within 10 business days. Hence, we do not consider it necessary to change the time-limit to 15 business days.

R of C has advised us that 95% of the current charges are “all monies” charges, where the amount cannot be accurately stated. He is often presented with such verbose and legalistic descriptions of the amounts secured that it is very difficult for him to interpret them and state the essence in the certificates of registration. We do not consider that the requirement to state the amount secured by the charge in the charge certificate serves any real purpose. Interested parties can obtain more comprehensive information by searching the related documents, which are available at the CR for public inspection.

Suggest to require filing to be done as soon as possible. In line with new section 153C relating to proofs of decisions of single director, consideration should be given to providing that such filing will be sufficient proof of the actions taken by the relevant member.	Comments in relation to clause 42 above are relevant. This legislative proposal is adopted from the UK Companies Act 1985 (section 382B). We need a specific timeframe for the filing. The proposed 30 days is meant to give sufficient time for the filing to be done. We are reviewing the need to amend the clause along the lines of the new section 153C.
Clause 53	SCAA	It is expected that many SMEs will have only one director after the enactment of the Bill. As the single director will have total control of the company and the chance of the number of directors being reduced to zero is greatly increased, the remaining officers of the company viz the Secretary or the Manager will have practical difficulties, if not impossible, to put the board back from zero to one. Therefore, it is not fair nor appropriate to hold these officers liable under proposed section 153A(3).	In accordance with the new section 153A(4), where the number of directors of a private company is reduced to zero by reason of the office of any director being vacated, the company or any officer shall not be liable for any default under the new section 153A(3) for a period of two months beginning on the day on which the office is vacated. A general meeting can be convened during this period to appoint a new director. Such arrangement would be analogous to the present situation where the number of directors of a company falls to below 2.

It is therefore inequitable to make the director vicariously liable for torts committed by his alternate. Insofar as the alternate director is appointed by the director, we agree with the SCCLR's view that the director should be vicariously responsible for the acts or omissions of his alternate (except in relation to an offence). As explained above, we do not consider it necessary to define the term "alternate director".
Clause 55	HKAB	Refer to comments in respect of Clause 42.	Comments in relation to clause 42 above are relevant.
Clause 56	Mr David Webb	Fail to see the sole director of a company should be prohibited from acting as Secretary of the company. The proposed provision imposes an unnecessary burden on the sole owner and director of a very small business who must find a third party to act as Secretary, which will inevitably incur expenses.	This legislative proposal is adopted from section 283 of the UK Companies Act 1985. It goes some way to alleviating the problems arising from the death of the sole director/member who has not made a will regarding the administration of the company affairs.

In this context, we have also adopted a similar approach as with the removal of an auditor and a special notice of the intended resolution to remove a director is required to be given to the members at least 21 days before the meeting at which the resolution is moved. This notice requirement is the same as that for a special resolution.

For example, leasing goods or land to a director with periodic payments could involve “financial assistance to directors” if the payments are set at a level not available in the commercial markets. On the term “conditional sales agreement”, we are considering whether it should be defined in the Bill for the sake of clarity. Both new sections 157H(2) and (4) prohibit a company from taking certain actions which would amount to a contravention of the new section 157H(1) in relation to the prohibition of financial assistance to directors. Hence, we do not consider it appropriate to amend this clause as suggested.

Clause 108	HKSA	Need to clearly define the phrase “electronic means” by reference to examples of more common modes of communication.	In this legislative proposal, we consider it sufficient to rely on the literal meaning of the term “electronic means”. It is worth noting that this term exists in a number of ordinances without a specific definition e.g. Banking Ordinance.

	Consumer Council (CB(1) 2622/01-02(03)) FHKI	Consideration should be given to including in the Bill a provision to abolish private company corporate directors. This will assist in identifying the actual persons responsible for the actions of companies. Express concern that the proliferation of new regulations on business will not only incur additional compliance cost on companies, particularly those SMEs, but also erode their competitiveness in the world market. Caution that an overly regulated business environment will defeat the entrepreneurial spirit and deter overseas investors from setting up companies in Hong Kong.	In drafting the Bill in relation to the abolition of corporate directors, we have become aware of the view that this legislative proposal would result in adverse implications for business, in particular the ability of secretarial firms to form companies quickly and companies solely concerned with asset management. However, on the other hand, there is no true accountability or transparency in a company which has corporate directors. In view of these considerations, we have initiated another round of consultation with the concerned parties on the matter and are examining the submissions received with a view to deciding how best to take the matter forward. It is one of our guiding principle not to impose an unnecessary burden on the companies when drawing up any legislative amendments to the Ordinance.
