Dear Ms Foo,

Telecommunications (Amendment) Bill 2002

I am scrutinizing the Administration's proposed Committee Stage amendments set out in LC Paper No. CB(1)1168/02-03(01) and should be grateful if you would clarify the following matters:

Proposed section 7P(1)(e) and (6)(b)(ii)

The way these two provisions is drafted suggests that where the Telecommunications Authority (TA) forms an opinion that a merger and acquisition (M&A) or a proposed M&A has, or is likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a telecommunications market, the carrier licensee would be required to take some action to eliminate or avoid any such anti-competitive effect. Is it envisaged that there may be suitable cases where TA may decide that no action needs to be taken by the licensee concerned although he forms the opinion that the M&A or proposed M&A has, or would have, anti-competitive effect? For instance, will TA consider it appropriate not to require the licensee to take any action under proposed section 7P(1) or (6) if TA forms the opinion that the M&A or proposed M&A would generate customer benefits which would outweigh the adverse effect of anti-competition created by the M&A concerned? If so, should provisions be included to cover this scenario?

Proposed section 7P(1A)

Should "referred to in subsection (1)" be added after "within 3 months after the change" to make the provision clearer?

Proposed section 7P(5) and (6)

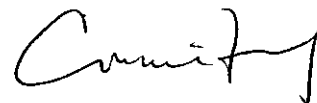

In relation to proposed M&As, will the Administration consider adding a provision similar to proposed section 7P(1)(d) to empower TA, on receiving an application for prior consent, to conduct such investigation as he considers necessary to enable him to form an opinion as to whether or not the proposed M&A would have, or be likely to have anti-competitive effect?

Proposed Schedule 2

In the heading, should "AUTHORITY" be amended to read "THE AUTHORITY"?

I would appreciate it if you could let me have a reply in both languages by 2 April 2003.

Yours sincerely,

(Connie Fung)

Dear Miss Fung,

Telecommunications (Amendment) Bill 2002

Thank you for your letter of 26 March 2003. Our responses are set out below :

Proposed Section 7P(1)(e) and (6)(b)(ii)

The policy objectives of the Bill are to promote effective competition and to assist investors in making informed decisions on merger and acquisition matters in the telecommunications market. Hence, the Bill aims to empower TA to intervene into a merger and acquisition which has, or is likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a telecommunications market as he sees fit. Hence, the use of "may" instead of "shall" is appropriate.

As to consumer benefit, one typical customer benefit which we envisage is that the merger and acquisition can generate efficiencies by permitting a better utilization of existing assets and the realization of economies of scale and scope which would not have been available to either firm without the merger and acquisition. To the extent that any efficiencies created by a merger and acquisition are passed on in the form of lower prices or otherwise in the form of more aggressive competitive conduct, the merger and acquisition may increase competition rather than lessen it. This is already one of the factors for consideration in assessing the competitive effect of a merger and acquisition, as set out in the "Explanatory Note on the Guidelines on the Competition Analysis of Mergers and Acquisitions in Telecommunications Market" which was issued to Members in December 2002".

Proposed Section 7P(1A)

The suggested change is not considered necessary. It is clear in the flow of the provisions that "the change" as mentioned in the proposed section 7P(1A) refers to the change described in proposed section 7P(1). This approach is also adopted in the original proposed section 7P(6) in relation to a "proposed change".

Proposed Section 7P(5) and (6)

We do not consider it necessary to add a provision similar to the proposed section 7P(1)(d). Section 7P(1) deals with cases where there is no application for prior consent, and TA intervenes into a case on his own initiative. Investigation is considered a proper description of the work of TA. On the other hand, section 7P(6) deals with the cases where there is an application for prior consent. Upon receipt of the application, the TA will process the application and form an opinion. The work to be carried out by TA is more properly termed as processing an application. The existing proposed sections 7P(6) is therefore sufficient and appropriate.

Proposed Schedule 2

The article "The" before "Authority" in the heading of proposed Schedule 2 is not necessary. Articles are usually omitted in headings of sections, schedules, forms, etc. in the statute (see, for example, the heading of proposed section 7P, and the heading of Schedule 1 to the Long-term Prison Sentences Review Regulation (Cap. 524 sub. leg. A): "MATTERS THAT MAY BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT BY BOARD").

Yours sincerely,

(Miss Linda So)
