Dear Ms Cheng,

Public Officers Pay Adjustment Bill

Thank you for your letter of 5 June 2002. Our response to the questions raised are set out in the following paragraphs.

(a) Part 3

The term "public officer" is as defined under the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap.1), i.e. it means any person holding an office of emolument under the Government, whether such office be permanent or temporary.

Clause 5 of the Public Officers Pay Adjustment Bill covers those public officers who are not civil servants or ICAC officers but whose pay is:

- (a) determined in accordance with or by reference to, directly or indirectly, a point on the civil service pay scales or the ICAC pay scale:

- (b) adjusted in accordance with or by reference to, directly or indirectly, adjustments to the civil service pay scales or the ICAC pay scale; or
- (c) determined and adjusted as mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) respectively.

Broadly speaking, they refer to certain specified types of non-civil service appointment made by the Government. Examples of non-civil service appointments covered by clause 5(a), (b) or (c) respectively are set out at the Annex.

(b) Clause 9

The purpose of the Bill is not to interpret the original intention of the contracting parties, but to modify those provisions of the contract dealing with pay, in accordance with the provisions of the Bill. It will be appreciated that officers' contracts have already been modified in the past, with their tacit consent, to give them the benefit of past upward adjustments in pay.

(c) Clause 10

The arrangement whereby an officer is appointed on starting salaries that are delinked from the annual civil service pay adjustment essentially covers the civil service and ICAC officers. A civil servant or an ICAC officer who is remunerated on starting salaries is remunerated on the civil service pay scales or the ICAC pay scale as the case may be. As such, unless these officers are specifically exempted from the Bill, they would be caught by Clauses 3 and 4 of the Bill and thus be subject to the pay reduction as specified in the Bill. This would be contrary to our policy intention that those officers on starting salaries should not be affected by the service-wide annual civil service pay adjustment.

(d) Clauses 8 and 11

If the Chief Executive in Council amends Schedule 3 of the Bill, thereby bringing any exempted person within the proposed adjustment, we consider that such an adjustment should be regarded as an adjustment now proposed by the Bill.

Clause 8 underlines the Administration's intention that the Public Officers Pay Adjustment Bill caters specifically for this year's civil service pay adjustment which will take effect from 1 October 2002. The Bill will not have any effect on the annual civil service pay adjustment for subsequent years which the Administration may determine in line with the prevailing policy and mechanism.

The policy intention is that the pay reduction specified in the Bill will be implemented from a prospective specified date, i.e. 1 October 2002. Thus, while we have not specified an expiry date for the power of the Chief Executive in Council under Clause 11 of the Bill, we do not envisage that such power will be exercised after 30 September 2002.

Yours sincerely,

(Mrs Jessie Ting)
for Secretary for the Civil Service
