I. Way forward

(LC Paper Nos. CB(2)473/02-03, CB(2)488/02-03(01) and CB(2)514/02-03(01)-(03))

The Bills Committee deliberated (index of proceedings attached at Annex).

2. Members discussed the options on the way forward, as detailed in paragraph 16(a)-(c) of LC Paper No. CB(2)473/02-03. Most members were in favour of option (b) and suggested that the Administration should be requested to give undertakings on the following -

- (a) to provide to the relevant Panel(s) the findings of the consultancy study on alternative measures to handle unruly children once the report was available;
- (b) to consider members' suggestion raised at the last meeting on 13 November 2002 [paragraphs 2(b) and 4 of LC Paper No. CB(2)488/02-03(01)];
- (c) to consider the suggestion made by Dr LAW Chi-kwong that the scope of PSDS should be extended to cover those juvenile offenders below the revised minimum age of criminal responsibility so that they could also be referred for services; and
- (d) expanding the scope of the care and protection orders to provide greater flexibility for the issue of such orders to those children at risk and who were below the revised minimum age of criminal responsibility.

3. The Chairman suggested that the Administration should be required to make the above undertakings during the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill. Members agreed.

4. Members also agreed that the Administration should be required to put in place concrete measures to enhance the existing system of handling children below or above the minimum age of criminal responsibility, before the Bill came into operation if it was enacted. In this connection, members considered that the Administration should report to the Panel on Security the implementation plan of such measures, and that members of this Bills Committee should be invited to attend the discussion.

Proposed amendment to the minimum age of criminal responsibility

5. The Bills Committee discussed whether the minimum age of criminal responsibility should be raised to ten or 12 years. The following members supported that the minimum age should be raised to 12 years : Miss Margaret NG, Ms Cyd HO, Ms Miriam LAU, Dr LAW Chi-kwong, Mr Michael MAK and Mr WONG Sing-chi (as advised by Dr LAW Chi-kwong). Mr Jasper TSANG and Mr Ambrose LAU said that while they personally considered the Administration's proposal of raising the minimum age to ten years acceptable, they would further discuss the Bills Committee's proposal of raising the minimum age to 12 years with Members belonging to their respective parties.

6. Members agreed that the Administration should first be asked to consider whether it would move a Committee Stage amendment to the Bill to raise the minimum age to 12 years.

7. Members agreed to hold the next meeting on 12 December 2002 at 8:30 am.

(Post-meeting note : At the request of the Administration and with the concurrence of the Chairman, the next meeting will be postponed to mid-January 2003. A visit to observe the operation of PSDS will take place on 12 December 2002 instead.)

8. There being no other business, the meeting ended at 9:30 am.
