Registration of Persons (Amendment) Bill 2001

Proposed Committee Stage Amendments

INTRODUCTION

At the Bills Committee meeting held on 28 January 2003, the Administration tabled draft Committee Stage Amendments (CSAs) to amend Clauses 2(a), 3(b), 4(a), 7, 8, 10, 13, 14(a), 17, 19, 21 and add a new Clause 20A. A copy of the draft CSAs is at Annex.

PURPOSE OF PROPOSED CSAs

2. The purpose of the proposed CSAs are explained below –
 - (a) Clause 2(a) – to introduce a minor amendment to the Chinese text to bring it fully in line with the English version;
 - (b) Clause 3(b) – to define “member of the Immigration Service” as that in the Immigration Service Ordinance (Cap. 331);
 - (c) Clause 4(a), new subparagraph (va) – to make it clear that “documents and records” referred to in section 7(n) of the Registration of Persons (ROP) Ordinance may be in tangible or digital form;

- (d) Clause 4(a), new subparagraph (vb) – to introduce a consequential amendment to section 7(p) of the ROP Ordinance relating to fees to reflect the move of regulation 23 to the principal ordinance to become the new proposed section 9A;
- (e) Clause 4(a), subparagraph (vi) – to extend Chief Executive in Council’s regulation-making power (as provided for in section 7 of the ROP Ordinance) to include the power of “viewing of information reproduced from data stored in the chips in identity card” by police officers and members of the Immigration Service. Such a power is introduced in the proposed new regulation 11A(1)(c);
- (f) Clause 7 – (item a) to limit the restriction on use of particulars in the proposed section 9 to records kept by the Commissioner on particulars furnished to a registration officer under the ROP Ordinance. As such, the use of particulars duly obtained from the Commissioner pursuant to a legitimate request (for example, applications for a Certificate of Registered Particulars) is not subject to the restriction in the proposed section 9 nor the penalty provision in the proposed section 11. Besides, the Chinese text of the proposed section 9 is amended (i.e. by replacing “除第 10 條另有規定外，根據本條例向登記主任提供的詳情” with “在符合第 10 條的規定下，處長就根據本條例向登記主任提供的詳情而備存的紀錄”) so as to reflect more accurately the meaning of the corresponding English text;
- (g) Clause 7 – (items b & c) to refine the proposed section 9(b) to make it clear that ROP particulars can be used for enabling verification of identity of individuals by public officers in discharge of their official duties or by others for lawful purposes;

- (h) Clause 7 – (item d) to delete the word “other” in the proposed section 9(c) because the purposes referred to in this subparagraph can include the purposes referred to in other subparagraphs in the proposed section 9;
- (i) Clause 7 – (items e & f) to move regulation 23 of the ROP Regulations to the principal Ordinance as the new section 9A with minor consequential textual amendments to the proposed section 10;
- (j) Clause 7 – (items g to i) to introduce a new sub-section in the proposed section 10 to require the Chief Secretary for Administration to state the reason for giving permission to disclose records of ROP particulars kept by the Commissioner. Other amendments to section 10 are consequential textual amendments;
- (k) Clause 7 – (item j) to introduce an amendment in the proposed section 11 to prohibit unauthorized erasure, cancellation or alteration of ROP records and make it clear that such prohibition is in respect of records kept by the Commissioner;
- (l) Clause 8 – to delete the definition of “officer of the Immigration Department” as a more commonly used definition of “member of the Immigration Service” has been reinstated in Clause 3(b) and to define portable smartcard reader, including its functions and limitations for the purpose of regulations 11A and 11B;
- (m) Clause 10 – to redraft the proposed regulation 4A(1) to make it clear by express provisions that the inclusion of non-immigration information, particulars and data on an identity card should require the consent of the card holder and to specify that the purpose of inclusion and the information, particulars and data to be included in an identity card will be set out in columns 1 and 2 of Schedule 5 respectively;

- (n) Clause 13 – to redraft the proposed regulation 11A to authorize only police officers and members of the Immigration Service to use portable smartcard readers to view ROP data in an identity card and to scan a person’s thumb-print for matching with his thumb-print template in his identity card, if they have reason to believe that the identity card produced is not issued under the ROP Ordinance to the person concerned. A new regulation 11B is also introduced requiring the Commissioner to publish in the Gazette the types of approved portable smartcard readers to be used;
- (o) Clause 14(a) – to expand the scope of the proposed regulation 12(1A) to cover hacking, i.e. it is an offence for any person to gain access to data stored in a chip of an identity card without any reasonable excuse;
- (p) Clause 17 – A consequential amendment to repeal regulation 23 which has been moved to the principal Ordinance;
- (q) Clause 19 – to introduce new savings and transitional provisions to cater for the introduction of smart identity cards, leaving the existing savings and transitional provisions intact;
- (r) New clause 20A – to introduce a consequential amendment to Schedule 2 so that it refers to the new section 9A instead of regulation 23; and

- (s) Clause 21 – to provide for a more detailed Schedule 5 to clearly set out not only the purposes of including non-immigration information, particulars and data in an identity card, but also the information, particulars and data to be included.

3. Members are requested to comment on the proposed CSAs.
