

C004-E

A BILL To Amend the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance.

Enacted by the Legislative Council.

PART I

Preliminary

1. Short title and commencement

(1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Dutiable Commodities (Amendment) Ordinance 2002.

(2) This Ordinance shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Secretary for the Treasury by notice published in the Gazette.

PART II

Amendment of Dutiable Commodities Ordinance

and its Subsidiary Legislation

Dutiable Commodities Ordinance

2. Grant and revocation of licences and permits

Section 7 of the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance (Cap. 109) is amended by adding---

"(1A) Without prejudice to subsection (1)(b)(iv) and subject to section 8A(3), the Commissioner or other officer deputed by him in that behalf may revoke a licence that was granted in respect of any premises."

3. Section added

The following is added---

"8A. Determining applications for and revocation of licences in respect of premises

(1) In determining an application for the grant or renewal of a licence in respect of any premises, the Commissioner or the officer deputed by him in that behalf shall take into account---

- (a) whether the applicant possesses the appropriate financial status;
- (b) whether the books of account and other documents that are kept or proposed to be kept by the applicant in relation to the premises are sufficient for the purpose of auditing;
- (c) whether the systems, procedures and standards that are used or proposed to be used by the applicant in respect of inventory control, record keeping and security are appropriate;
- (d) whether the applicant and his responsible personnel are fit and proper persons; and
- (e) any other relevant matter.

(2) No licence shall be granted in respect of any premises which are or will be used wholly or partly as a place of residence.

(3) In determining whether to revoke under section 7(1A) a licence that was granted in respect of any premises, the Commissioner or the officer shall take into account---

- (a) whether the licensee possesses the appropriate financial status;
- (b) whether the books of account and other documents that are kept by the licensee in relation to the premises are sufficient for the purpose of auditing;
- (c) whether the systems, procedures and standards that are used by the licensee in respect of inventory control, record keeping and security are appropriate;
- (d) whether the licensee and his responsible personnel are fit and proper persons; and
- (e) any other relevant matter.

(4) In determining whether a person is a fit and proper person for the purposes of subsection (1)(d) or (3)(d), the Commissioner or the officer shall take into account---

- (a) the fact that the person has a conviction in Hong Kong or elsewhere for an offence for which it was necessary to find that the person had acted fraudulently, corruptly or dishonestly;
- (b) the fact that the person has been convicted of an offence against this Ordinance;
- (c) if the person is an individual, the fact that the person is an undischarged bankrupt or has entered into a composition or a scheme of arrangement or a voluntary arrangement within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap. 6) within the 5 years preceding the date of the application;
- (d) if the person is a body corporate, the fact that the person is in liquidation, is the subject of a winding-up order or there is a receiver appointed in relation to it or it has entered into a composition or a scheme of arrangement or a voluntary arrangement within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap. 6) within the 5 years preceding the date of the application; and
- (e) any other relevant matter.

(5) In this section, "responsible personnel" (負責人員), in relation to a person who is an applicant or licensee (as the case may be), means---

- (a) where the person is a body corporate, any of its directors;
- (b) where the person is an unincorporated association, the president, chairman, vice chairman or secretary of its management or executive committee (however described), or a person holding a similar office; or
- (c) any other person who is or will be wholly or mainly responsible for the management of the premises concerned."

PART III

Saving and Transitional Provisions

24. Interpretation

In this Part---

"existing licence" (現有牌照) means a licence that is valid immediately before the commencement of this Part;

"licence" (牌照) means a licence that was or will be granted in respect of any premises;

"original Ordinance" (原有條例) means the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance (Cap. 109) as it is in force immediately before the commencement of this Part.

25. Existing licences

(1) An existing licence shall remain valid for the unexpired portion of its period of validity that falls after the commencement of this Part, and the original Ordinance shall apply to the existing licence.

(2) If the holder of an existing licence applies for a licence---

(a) the Commissioner or the officer deputed by him in that behalf shall not grant a licence except upon the surrender of the existing licence; and

(b) the existing licence shall upon its surrender cease to be valid.

(3) The fee payable for a licence granted in accordance with subsection (2) shall be reduced by any fee paid for the existing licence in respect of the unexpired portion of its period of validity that falls after the surrender.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the fee to be reduced shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis by reference to the number of months of the unexpired portion of the period of validity of the existing licence bears to the number of months for which the existing licence was granted, and part of a month shall be reckoned as a month.

26. Pending licence applications

Where, immediately before the commencement of this Part, an application made under the original Ordinance for the grant or renewal of a licence is pending, the application shall, if the applicant so requests in writing, be determined in accordance with the original Ordinance.

Explanatory Memorandum

This Bill amends the Dutiable Commodities Ordinance (Cap. 109) ("the Ordinance") and the Dutiable Commodities Regulations (Cap. 109 sub. leg.) ("the Regulations") for the following main purposes---

(a) to introduce an Open Bond System ("OBS") for premises storing or manufacturing dutiable goods, including warehouses and factories; and

(b) to make other changes, including ancillary, minor and consequential changes, to existing provisions in the Ordinance and the Regulations.

2. In relation to OBS---

(a) clause 2 adds to existing section 7 of the Ordinance a new subsection, which gives the Commissioner of Customs and Excise ("the Commissioner") the power to revoke a licence that was granted in respect of such premises. Clause 3 adds to the Ordinance a new provision, which requires the Commissioner to take into account certain matters when determining whether to revoke the licence. The Commissioner shall take into account the same matters when determining an application for the grant or renewal of such a licence;

(b) clauses 10 to 12, 16 and 18 repeal certain existing provisions which will become obsolete once OBS is implemented;

(c) clauses 5 and 6 amend section 47A of and Schedule 3 to the Ordinance to give the Commissioner power to compound an offence under regulation 99 of the Regulations;

(d) clause 7 adds to regulation 22(1) of the Regulations a new paragraph, which requires the applicant for such a licence to furnish information about the proposed opening hours;

(e) clause 14 adds to the Regulations a new provision, which imposes new duties on warehouse-keepers to produce goods for inspection and to store goods in a certain manner;

(f) clause 15 replaces existing regulation 85 of the Regulations by a new provision, which requires a warehouse-keeper to notify the Commissioner of certain decisions in relation to opening the warehouse or changing its opening hours;

(g) clause 19 makes minor and consequential changes to regulation 95 of the Regulations;

(h) clause 20 adds to the Regulations a new provision, which requires a warehouse-keeper to keep certain documents;

(i) clause 21 amends regulation 99 of the Regulations---the existing requirements of reporting in relation to deficiency of dutiable goods stored in a warehouse will apply also to a case of surplus;

(j) clauses 22 and 23 make consequential amendments to regulations 104 and 105 of the Regulations respectively;

(k) clauses 24 to 26 make saving and transitional provisions---

(i) to save the validity of existing licences;

(ii) to provide for a procedure for the surrender of an existing licence in return for a new licence;

(iii) to save the application of the existing provisions to pending applications for the grant or renewal of such licences, if the applicant so requests.

3. In relation to the other amendments---

(a) clauses 4, 9, 13 and 17 repeal certain existing provisions which have become obsolete;

(b) clause 5 amends section 47A of the Ordinance---the consequences now stated in subsection (3) will apply only where dutiable goods are seized;

(c) clause 8 adds to the Regulations a new provision, which requires renewal applications of licences under the Ordinance to be made at least 1 month before and no earlier than 2 months before the expiration of the licence.
