HEAD 174 – STANDING COMMISSION ON CIVIL SERVICE
SALARIES AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

HEAD 175 – STANDING COMMITTEE ON DISCIPLINED SERVICES
SALARIES AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

Subhead 001 Salaries

Members are invited to recommend to Finance
Committee, with effect from 1 December 2001 –

(I) under Head 174 – Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service

(a) the redeployment of the following permanent posts –

1 Administrative Officer Staff Grade B1
(D4) ($152,400 – $157,050); and

1 Administrative Officer Staff Grade C
(D2) ($122,450 – $130,050);

(b) the creation of the following permanent post –

1 Administrative Officer Staff Grade C
(D2) ($122,450 – $130,050); and

/(c) .....

- (c) an increase in the ceiling placed on the total notional annual mid-point salary value of all non-directorate posts in the permanent establishment under Head 174 in 2001-02 from $8,258,000 by $1,548,340 to $9,806,340.

(II) under Head 175 – Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service

the deletion of the following permanent posts –

1 Administrative Officer Staff Grade B
(D3) ($134,300 – $142,300); and

1 Principal Executive Officer
(D1) ($103,150 – $109,450).

PROBLEM

The existing four advisory bodies on civil service and judicial pay and conditions of service, i.e. the Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service (Standing Commission), the Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service (SCDS), the Standing Committee on Directorate Salaries and Conditions of Service and the Standing Committee on Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service (Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees), are currently serviced by their separate Secretariats/Secretary. This fragmented approach is not conducive to work productivity and limits the scope for coordination among the advisory bodies in the handling of common or related issues pertaining to pay and conditions of service of the civil service and the judicial service. It is necessary to amalgamate the Secretariats for the Standing Commission and SCDS into a Joint Secretariat for the Advisory Bodies on Civil Service and Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service (Joint Secretariat) to provide enhanced support services to the four advisory bodies on civil service and judicial salaries and conditions of service.

/PROPOSAL .....

PROPOSAL

2. To facilitate the establishment of the Joint Secretariat, the Secretary for the Civil Service proposes the following establishment changes with effect from 1 December 2001 –

- (a) redeployment of two permanent directorate posts of one Administrative Officer Staff Grade B1 (AOSGB1) (D4) and one Administrative Officer Staff Grade C (AOSGC) (D2) in the Standing Commission Secretariat to service the Joint Secretariat;
- (b) creation of one permanent directorate post of AOSGC (D2) for the Joint Secretariat, to be offset by the deletion of two permanent directorate posts of one Administrative Officer Staff Grade B (AOSGB) (D3) and one Principal Executive Officer (PEO) (D1) in the SCDS Secretariat; and
- (c) deletion of two non-directorate posts in the Standing Commission Secretariat and transfer of five non-directorate posts from the SCDS Secretariat to the Joint Secretariat for the setting up of a support team, which necessitates an increase in the establishment ceiling for non-directorate posts under Head 174 in 2001-02 by $1,548,340.

JUSTIFICATIONExisting Arrangements

3. There are currently four advisory bodies which advise the Government on matters relating to civil service and judicial pay and conditions of service, namely, the Standing Commission, SCDS and the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees. While the Standing Commission and SCDS are each supported by its dedicated Secretariat, the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees are only served by a Principal Assistant Secretary in the Civil Service Bureau as part-time Secretary.

4. The Standing Commission Secretariat has an establishment of three directorate and 20 non-directorate posts. The Secretariat is headed by the Secretary General, Standing Commission who is pitched at AOSGB1 (D4) level. He is assisted by an Assistant Secretary General (ranked at AOSGC (D2)) and other general grades staff. In addition to servicing the Standing Commission, the Secretariat also oversees the Pay Survey and Research Unit (PSRU) which conducts annual pay trend surveys and other surveys relating to salary and benefits and provides support services to the Pay Trend Survey Committee. The PSRU is headed by a PEO (D1).

5. The SCDS Secretariat has an establishment of two directorate and ten non-directorate posts. The Secretariat is headed by the Secretary General, SCDS (ranked at AOSGB (D3)) who is underpinned by a PEO (D1) and two Senior Executive Officers (MPS 34 - 44), in addition to a general support team comprising clerical and secretarial staff.

Merging of the Secretariats of the Standing Commission and SCDS

6. Following a comprehensive review, the Administration considers that a Joint Secretariat should be established by pooling the resources currently split between the Standing Commission and SCDS Secretariats. The merger will enable better coordination among the four advisory bodies in the handling of issues relating to pay and conditions of service of the civil service and the judicial service, enhance flexibility in resource redeployment to cope with large-scale ad hoc assignments specific to individual advisory bodies, improve productivity and streamline procedures. The establishment of the proposed Joint Secretariat will also facilitate the provision of dedicated and wider scope of support services to the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees. To realise these benefits, we need to implement the following establishment changes to facilitate the setting up of the Joint Secretariat.

(a) Redeployment of the posts of Secretary General and Assistant Secretary General in the Standing Commission Secretariat

7. With the amalgamation of the existing Secretariats, the Head of the Joint Secretariat (to be designated as Secretary General, Joint Secretariat) will have a wider role to play, particularly in respect of issues with implications for the civil service as well as the judicial service, on which we need advice from the four advisory bodies. The Secretary General, Joint Secretariat will attend meetings of all four advisory bodies on salaries and conditions of service. Having regard to the complexity of the duties and the level of responsibilities involved, we propose redeploying the existing post of Secretary General, Standing Commission (ranked at AOSGB1) to head the Joint Secretariat. The job description of the proposed Secretary General, Joint Secretariat is at Enclosure 1.

Encl. 1

8. As mentioned in paragraph 4, the Secretary General, Standing Commission is currently assisted by an Assistant Secretary General (ranked at AOSGC) in servicing the Standing Commission. Upon merging of the Secretariats, we propose redeploying this post as Assistant Secretary General (Joint Secretariat)1 who will continue to provide dedicated support to the Standing Commission and oversee the PSRU which will continue to be headed by the existing PEO in the permanent establishment under Head 174. The job description of the proposed Encl. 2 Assistant Secretary General (Joint Secretariat) 1 post is at Enclosure 2.

(b) Creation of a permanent post of AOSGC for the Joint Secretariat and the consequential deletion of two directorate posts in the SCDS Secretariat

9. We also propose creating a permanent post of AOSGC, to be designated as Assistant Secretary General (Joint Secretariat) 2, to assist the Secretary General, Joint Secretariat in supporting the SCDS and the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees. Upon the creation of this post and the establishment of the Joint Secretariat, the two existing directorate posts in the SCDS Secretariat (i.e. 1 AOSGB and 1 PEO) will no longer be required and can be deleted. The job description of the proposed Assistant Secretary General (Joint Secretariat) 2 post is at Enclosure 3.

(c) Increase in the establishment ceiling for non-directorate posts under Head 174

10. At present, there are 30 non-directorate posts under the two existing Secretariats (20 in the Standing Commission Secretariat and ten in the SCDS Secretariat) to provide executive and general administrative support to the Standing Commission and SCDS. Upon the centralisation of the general support service, the Joint Secretariat requires a general support team of only 23 non-directorate posts. This involves the deletion of two posts in the Standing Commission Secretariat and five posts in the SCDS Secretariat and the transfer of the remaining five posts in the SCDS Secretariat to the Joint Secretariat. We set out at Enclosures 4 and 5 details of the proposed redeployment and deletion of non-directorate posts respectively.

Encls.
4 & 5

11. Taking into account the proposed deletion of two posts in the Standing Commission Secretariat and the transfer of five posts from the SCDS Secretariat to the Joint Secretariat, we need to increase the ceiling placed on the total notional annual mid-point salary value of all non-directorate posts in the permanent establishment under Head 174 in 2001-02 from $8,258,000 by $1,548,340 to $9,806,340.

/12. ....

12. The above restructuring proposal will not affect the independence of the advisory bodies. The advisory bodies will continue to deal with pay and conditions of service matters within their respective areas of responsibility, and will continue to be served by dedicated secretariat support within the Joint Secretariat. The organisation structure of the proposed Joint Secretariat is at Enclosure 6.

Encl. 6

13. Upon the establishment of a Joint Secretariat, the ambit of Head 174 will need to be expanded to include the SCDS and the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees as users of funds under this Head of Expenditure. On the other hand, the existing Head 175 for the SCDS will no longer be required and can be deleted. We shall seek the approval of the Finance Committee separately to change the title of Head 174 from 'Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service' to 'Joint Secretariat for the Advisory Bodies on Civil Service and Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service' and its Controlling Officer from 'Secretary General, Standing Commission' to 'Secretary General, Joint Secretariat', and to delete Head 175.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

14. The proposal will bring about the following net saving in notional annual salary cost at MID-POINT –

	$	No. of posts
Deletion of posts
AOSGB	1,659,000	1
PEO	1,273,800	1
Non-directorate posts	1,405,320	7
Less New permanent post
AOSGC	1,515,000	1
Net Saving	2,823,120	8

The net saving in full annual average staff cost of the proposal, including salaries and staff on-costs, is $4,524,000. The Administration will be able to accommodate the staff released as a result of the deletion of directorate/non-directorate posts through natural wastage or internal redeployment and no staff will be made redundant.

/BACKGROUND .....

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The role and composition of the Standing Commission

15. The Standing Commission, set up in 1979, advises the Chief Executive on salary and conditions of service matters for the non-directorate civil service other than the Judiciary. It advised on issues affecting the disciplined services until 1989 when the SCDS was established. The Standing Commission comprises the Chairman and seven Members.

The role and composition of the SCDS

16. The SCDS advises the Chief Executive on matters relating to the pay and conditions of service of the disciplined services. In view of the special work nature and the status of the disciplined services, which made them different from the rest of the civil service, there was a perceived need for an independent advisory body, separate from the Standing Commission, to deal with salaries and conditions of service issues concerning the disciplined services. The SCDS was thus established in 1989. It comprises the Chairman and ten Members.

The role and composition of the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees

17. The Standing Committee on Directorate Salaries and Conditions of Service is responsible for advising the Chief Executive on the structure of directorate posts and the pay and conditions of service of directorate officers. The Standing Committee on Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service has a similar advisory role in respect of judicial officers. The two advisory committees have a common membership which comprises the Chairman and four Members.

18. The terms of reference of the four advisory committees are at Enclosures 7 to 10.

CONSULTATION

19. The Administration briefed the Legislative Council Panel on Public Service on 21 May 2001 on the proposal to establish a Joint Secretariat for the Standing Commission and the three Standing Committees. An information paper setting out the staffing proposal for the Joint Secretariat and the proposed merging of the two Heads of Expenditure of 174 and 175 was provided to the same Panel on 11 October 2001. Members noted the paper with no comment.

20. The Administration has consulted the Standing Commission, SCDS and the Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees on the Joint Secretariat proposal. All of them support the proposal. We have also informed the Staff Side of the four Central Consultative Councils and the ICAC Staff Consultative Committee of the proposal. We have not received any adverse comments from them.

CIVIL SERVICE BUREAU COMMENTS

21. The proposal is initiated by the Civil Service Bureau. We are of the view that the establishment of a Joint Secretariat to service the four advisory bodies on civil service and judicial salaries and conditions of service will result in more efficient use of resources and better coordination among the four advisory bodies on matters with implications for the civil service and the judicial service. Enhanced support available through a Joint Secretariat will also enable individual advisory bodies to better cope with any large-scale ad hoc assignments they may undertake in future.

22. We are satisfied that the staffing proposal contained in the paper are functionally justified. The grading and ranking of the proposed AOSGC post are appropriate having regard to its level and scope of responsibilities. The proposed redeployment of one AOSGB1 and one AOSGC posts as Secretary General and Assistant Secretary General respectively of the Joint Secretariat is also appropriate having regard to their duties and responsibilities.

ADVICE OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON DIRECTORATE SALARIES AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

23. The Standing Committee on Directorate Salaries and Conditions of Service has advised that the grading of the new post and the retitling of two posts would be appropriate if the posts were to be created/redeployed.
