LC Paper No. AS15/01-02

Paper for the House Committee Meeting on 12 October 2001

LegCo Fun Day 2001-2002

Purpose

This paper seeks Members' advice on whether a Legislative Council (LegCo) Fun Day, with participation of Members and reporters, should be held during the 2001-2002 session.

Background

2. The LegCo Fun Day has been held annually since 1987 with the aim of fostering relationship between Members and reporters.
3. Originally, LegCo Fun Days were held on a Saturday with sports and recreational competitions in the afternoon, ending with a dinner reception. The Fun Day Organizing Committee of the 2000-2001 session decided to split the Fun Day over two days, with a football match and goal-shooting game on 10 February 2001 at Siu Sai Wan Sports Ground and a dinner gathering with indoor games on 16 February 2001 in the Dining Hall of the Legislative Council Building.

Survey

4. Following the last Fun Day, the Public Information Division conducted an opinion poll among reporters.
5. The findings of the opinion poll are appended at Annex 1 for Members' information. Of the 67 replies received, 25 supported a dinner reception with indoor games (37.31%); 22 replies suggested a sports day with a dinner reception (32.83%); and 18 recommended the football match-dinner reception combination, which was the format of last year's Fun Day (26.86%).

Proposal

6. Based on the findings of the survey, it is proposed that a dinner reception with indoor games should be adopted as the format of the LegCo Fun Day 2001-2002.

Advice Sought

7. Members are invited to advise:
- (a) whether a LegCo Fun Day should be held in the 2001-2002 session as proposed in paragraph 6; and if so,
  - (b) whether an Organizing Committee should be formed to decide on the details of the Fun Day.
