("the Regulations") to give effect to the 2001-2002 edition of the Technical Instructions for the Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods by Air ("Technical Instructions") approved by the International Civil Aviation Organization ("ICAO"). L.N. 234 also repeals requirements which have been covered by the Regulations.
10. Members may refer to LegCo Brief File Ref. ESB CR 15/951/49 issued by the Economic Services Bureau in November 2001 for background information on the two Orders. According to the Brief, the Technical Instructions contain detailed provisions for the transport of dangerous goods by air to ensure aviation safety. The latest edition of the Technical Instructions came into effect on 1 July 2001, and the changes are highlighted in paragraphs 4 to 9 of the Brief.
11. The two Orders have come into operation on 9 November 2001. According to the Administration, the ICAO had taken into account the views of the industry when preparing the Technical Instructions. The industry have already incorporated the amendments to the Instructions into its handbook in July 2001 and are implementing the new requirements.

Animals and Plants (Protection of Endangered Species) (Exemption)

(Amendment) Order 2001 (L.N. 236)

Animals and Plants (Protection of Endangered Species) Ordinance (Amendment of Schedules) Notice 2001 (L.N. 237)

13. L.N. 236 amends the Animals and Plants (Protection of Endangered Species) (Exemption) Order (Cap. 187 sub. leg.) ("the Order") -

- (a) to exempt the possession or control of five species from the licensing requirement imposed by the Animals and Plants (Protection of Endangered Species) Ordinance (Cap. 187) ("the Ordinance");
- (b) to exempt the import, export, possession or control of certain scheduled plants from the licensing requirements imposed by the Ordinance.

EFB 9/55/25/01 issued by the Environment and Food Bureau on 7 November 2001 for background information on the Order and Notice. According to the Brief, representatives of the shark fin trade have raised objection to the proposal as they were concerned that more stringent controls would be imposed on their trade in future. The Administration has clarified that basking shark could continue to be traded under export or re-export licences (import licensing requirement is exempted under section 10 of the Order), and that the restriction reflects the changes made to CITES.

16. The Notice shall come into operation on the day to be appointed by the Secretary for the Environment and Food by notice published in the Gazette. The Amendment Order shall come into operation on the same day. The legal and drafting aspects of the Order and the Notice are in order.
