Dear Miss CHAN

United Nations Sanctions (Angola) (Suspension of Operation) Regulation 2002 ("the Regulation")

I understand from the United Nations Security Council Resolution ("UNSCR") 1439 (2002) provided by you that paragraphs 4(a) and 4(b) of the UNSCR 1127 (1997) ceased to have effect from 14 November 2002. Please confirm the measures, if any, which the Administration will take to implement the UNSCR 1439 (2002).

It will be appreciated if your reply in both languages could reach us by noon, 30 November 2002.

Yours sincerely

(Monna LAI)
Assistant Legal Adviser

Dear Ms LAI,

United Nations Sanctions (Angola)
(Suspension of Operation) Regulation 2002 ("the Regulation")

I refer to your letter of 25 November 2002.

Since the Regulation has no expiry date, we are in effect implementing paragraph 8 of the United Nations Security Council Resolution 1439, which terminates the travel restriction against certain Angolans. It is our intention, however, to repeal sections 4D and 4E of the United Nations Sanctions (Angola) Regulation and the captioned Regulation in due course for the sake of clarity.

Yours sincerely,

( Anita Chan )
for Secretary for Commerce, Industry and Technology
