LC Paper No. LS 119/01-02

Paper for the Bills Committee on United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Bill

A Supplementary Note to the Analysis of Overseas Legislation enacted to implement United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373 and the Comparison of Overseas Anti-Terrorism Legislation on Listing Process

This Note supplements LC Papers Nos. LS 52/01-02 and LS 98/01-02 on the Analysis of Overseas Legislation enacted to implement United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373 and the Comparison of Overseas Anti-Terrorism Legislation on Listing Process which have been discussed at the Bills Committee meeting on 6 June 2002.

2. According to the information supplied by the Administration after the meeting, Schedule 2 of the UK Terrorism Act 2000 (see "Remarks" Column to the box on "United Kingdom" in Part I of LC Paper No. LS 98/01-02) has been amended by The Terrorism Act 2000 (Proscribed Organisation) (Amendment) Order 2001 to the effect that non-domestic organisations are added to the list of proscribed organisations. A copy of the Order is at the Annex.

3. As has been summarized in the column on "United Kingdom" to the box on power to freeze funds in LC paper No. LS 52/01-02, under section 4 of The Terrorism (United Nations Measures) Order 2001, the Treasury may by notice direct certain funds not to be made available to any person except under the authority of a licence where it has reasonable grounds for suspecting a person by, for or on behalf of whom such funds are held is, or may be—

- (a) a person who commits, attempts to commit, facilitates or participates in the commission of acts of terrorism;

- (b) a person controlled or owned directly or indirectly by a person in (a); or
- (c) a person acting on behalf, or at the direction of a person in (a).

4. According to the latest information from the Administration, the Bank of England has in practice, under delegated authority and as agent for the Treasury, issued lists of persons (including certain proscribed organisations listed in Schedule 2 of the Terrorism Act 2000 and other foreign nationals or entities listed by the United Nations Security Council Committee) and directed relevant institutions that any funds which they hold for or on behalf of those persons so listed must be frozen.

5. The Administration confirms that the supplementary information supplied above has been verified by the UK Treasury.
