Dear Mr Lam,

LegCo Panel on Security

List of follow-up actions required of the Administration

Thank you for your letter of 23 September, inviting our response to the outstanding items in the captioned list. I write to inform you of the progress of item 6.

As suggested by Chairman of Independent Police Complaints Council at the Panel meeting on 10 July, Complaints Against Police Office (CAPO) are ready to make some complaint investigation files available for Members' access subject to the following –

- (a) for protection of personal data, all data that may lead to the identification of the people involved will be deleted; and
- (b) for security reasons, the files are kept in CAPO office. Members are welcome to ring 2860 2766 (Mr Joseph YIP) for arrangements to read the files at CAPO Headquarters at the following address :

Complaints & Internal Investigations Branch
1st Floor, Caine House
Police Headquarters
Arsenal Street
Wan Chai

The cases to be made available will be representative of the usual scope and volume of investigation work, its thoroughness and impartiality.

Yours sincerely,

(Miss Pamela LAM)
for Secretary for Security
