

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

The Ombudsman Ordinance
(Chapter 397)

THE OMBUDSMAN ORDINANCE (AMENDMENT OF SCHEDULE 1) ORDER 2001

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 27 November 2001, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that The Ombudsman Ordinance (Amendment of Schedule 1) Order 2001, at Annex A, should be made under section 24 of The Ombudsman Ordinance, to amend the list of organizations to which The Ombudsman Ordinance applies to reflect the amalgamation of the Secretariat of the Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service and the Secretariat of the Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service.

Annex A

BACKGROUND AND ARGUMENT

2. There are currently four advisory bodies which advise the Government on matters relating to civil service and judicial pay and conditions of service, namely the Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service (Standing Commission), the Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service (SCDS), the Standing Committee on Directorate Salaries and Conditions of Service and the Standing Committee on Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service (Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees). The Standing Commission and the SCDS are each supported by its dedicated Secretariat. The Directorate and Judicial Standing Committees are served by a Principal Assistant Secretary in the Civil Service Bureau on a part-time basis.

3. To streamline procedures and to improve productivity, the Administration has proposed to amalgamate the Secretariat of the Standing Commission and the Secretariat of the SCDS into a Joint Secretariat for the Advisory Bodies on Civil Service and Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service (Joint Secretariat). The Joint Secretariat will provide enhanced support services to the four afore-mentioned advisory bodies. This new organizational arrangement will also facilitate coordination among the advisory bodies in the handling of common or related issues pertaining to pay and conditions of service of the civil service and the judicial service. Following the establishment of the Joint Secretariat, the four advisory bodies will continue to deal with matters within their respective areas of responsibility independently.

4. On 9 November 2001, the Finance Committee of the Legislative Council approved the establishment of the Joint Secretariat on 1 December 2001 by merging the existing Secretariats of the Standing Commission and the SCDS.

The Ombudsman Ordinance (Amendment of Schedule 1) Order 2001

Annex B

5. The Ombudsman Ordinance (the Ordinance) empowers The Ombudsman to investigate any action taken by or on behalf of an organization specified in Part I of Schedule 1 to the Ordinance (at Annex B) in the exercise of its administrative functions. At present, The Ombudsman's jurisdiction covers all government bureaux and departments and 15 major statutory bodies.

6. Currently, the Secretariat of the Standing Commission and the Secretariat of the SCDS are specified in Part I of Schedule 1 to the Ordinance and are thus under the jurisdiction of The Ombudsman. With the disbandment of these two Secretariats and the setting up of the new Joint Secretariat on 1 December 2001, it is appropriate to remove the "Secretariat of the Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service" and the "Secretariat of the Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service" from Part I of Schedule 1 to the Ordinance and add the "Joint Secretariat for the Advisory Bodies on Civil Service and Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service" to the same Schedule so that the new department will be put under the jurisdiction of The Ombudsman. Section 24 of the Ordinance provides that the Chief Executive in Council may, by order published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 1 thereto.

THE ORDER

7. Section 1 provides that the Order shall come into operation on 1 December 2001. Section 2 amends Part I of Schedule 1 to the Ordinance by repealing "Secretariat of the Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service" and "Secretariat of the Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service" and adding "Joint Secretariat for the Advisory Bodies on Civil Service and Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service".

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

8. We have consulted the four advisory bodies on civil service and judicial salaries and conditions of service on the Joint Secretariat proposal. All of them support the proposal. The Finance Committee of the Legislative Council approved the proposal on 9 November 2001. Our intention is that The Ombudsman should, after the restructuring, have jurisdiction over the Joint Secretariat and there has not been any suggestion from the public to the contrary.

BASIC LAW IMPLICATIONS

9. The Department of Justice advises that the proposal is consistent with the Basic Law.

HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS

10. The Department of Justice advises that the proposal has no human rights implications.

BINDING EFFECT OF THE ORDER

11. The Order will not affect the current binding effect of the Ordinance.

FINANCIAL AND STAFFING IMPLICATIONS

12. The proposal does not have any financial or staffing implications for Government.

ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS

13. The proposal is in line with the move to streamline Government set-ups, economize on resources and enhance administrative efficiency.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

14. The Order will be gazetted on 30 November 2001 and will be tabled in the Legislative Council on 5 December 2001 for negative vetting.

PUBLICITY

15. A spokesman will be available to answer media enquiries.
