Andrew Len Tao SHENG

Chairman,

Securities and Futures Commission

10 December 2001

Explanatory Note

Under section 59 of the Commodities Trading Ordinance (Cap. 250), the Securities and Futures Commission may establish and fix limits on the amount of trading which may be done, or positions which may be held, by any person under futures or options contracts in respect of a specified commodity on the Hong Kong Futures Exchange.

2. Such limits are established and fixed for the futures and options contracts specified in the Schedule to the Commodities Trading (Trading Limits and Position Limits) Rules (Cap. 250 sub. leg.). That Schedule is now amended by adding 20 new international stock futures contracts, 20 new options on those newly added international stock futures contracts, one new Dow Jones Industrial Average futures contract and one new Dow Jones Industrial Average options contract.
