Subject: Please listen to your conscience

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing to ask you to look within at your own conscience and seriously consider how your decisions will affect the eternity of Hong Kong, when you voice your opinions about Article 23.

I am very concerned that, by enacting Article 23, the freedoms of the citizens and residents of your wonderful country will be dramatically reduced, in a way that cannot be reversed. I believe Hong Kong will be taken backwards in countless ways, if Article 23 is enacted.

I hope you yourself feel that you have enough freedom of speech and freedom of belief to act according to your conscience. If you do, then please take the right moral stand for the future of your country. If you don't feel you have freedom of speech and belief even now, and that your decisions must be based on China's wishes, then that is even more reason NOT to enact Article 23.

Best wishes for your future
Louise Stevanovic
