Subject: "NO!" to anti-subversion laws!

2002/12/23 08:46 PM

To the government of Hong Kong:

In China, people have been struggling hard for democracy and human rights. Instead of joining their struggle, the Hong Kong government is trying to push through the enactment of Article 23 without comprehensive and thorough public consultation, and stripping Hong Kong citizens of legally protected civil rights. This kind of political regression cannot be justified on any grounds. In the words of Lu Ping, former director of the Hong Kong and Macau Affairs Office in Hong Kong, the Hong Kong government will go down history as a 'criminal'.

"NO!" to anti-subversion laws!
