2. Review of domestic rent policy

On the advice of the Administration and with the concurrence of the Chairman, the subject was scheduled for discussion upon the completion of the domestic rent review.

To be confirmed

In the Judicial Review in respect of the Housing Authority (HA)'s decisions to defer the review of public rental housing (PRH) rents in 2001 and 2002, the Court of First Instance ruled in favour of the two applicants for the Judicial Review. Pursuant to this outcome, a special meeting was called on 16 July 2003 to discuss the issue of median rent-to-income ratio (MRIR) for PRH flats. During the meeting, the issue of rent review was raised. A motion urging the Administration to review the rent of PRH units following the High Court's making of an order in respect of the Judgement was passed. The above request was repeated at the special Panel meeting held on 25 March 2004 to discuss the Administration's proposed framework for reviewing PRH rents. It was decided that the Panel should discuss the way forward contemplated by the Administration after the judgment concerning the MRIR case had been delivered by the Court of Appeal.

5. Eligibility criteria required of residents of interim housing and affected by works projects for public rental housing

Duty Roster Members (DRMs) handled a complaint case about eligibility criteria required of residents of the Shek Lei (II) Interim Housing Estate when applying for public rental housing. The deputation requested that interim housing residents be waived of the eligibility criteria on income and assets limits for PRH, and for acceleration of allocation of PRH. Hon Albert HO, Panel Chairman, one of the DRMs, instructed that the subject be put on the Panel's list of outstanding items for discussion.

To be confirmed

Tai Po District Council (TPDC) members also raised at their meeting with LegCo Members on 4 March 2004 concerns about the rehousing eligibility of residents affected by the project at Ma Wat River. According to TPDC members, affected residents were dissatisfied that, while their homes would be demolished by the Government because of the project, they would be subject to the income and asset limits for rehousing to PRH flats.

6. Disposal of surplus Home Ownership Scheme (HOS) flats

The subject was proposed by members at the regular meeting of the Panel on 2 February 2004. Subsequently, two joint meetings with the Panel on Planning, Lands and Works were held on 17 February and 8 March 2004 to discuss the disposal of surplus HOS and Private Sector Participation Scheme (PSPS) flats in the wake of the agreement reached by the Administration with the developer of the Hunghom Peninsula PSPS project over the disposal of the flats concerned. At the meeting on 7 June 2004, the Panel further discussed the proposed use of surplus HOS flats for reprovisioning departmental quarters for disciplinary services. Disposal of Kingsford Terrace PSPS flats would also be discussed at the Panel's meeting in July.
