

Mark-up version of provisions in the Bankruptcy (Amendment) Bill 2004 to which the Administration intends to propose amendments
As at 17 May 2005
[Wordings subject to further consideration by the Law Draftsman]

Introduction

Compared with the version discussed at the last Bills Committee meeting held on 10 May 2005, we have made two further amendments –

- (a) Under clause 5, upon further review, the reference to sections 78(1)(g) and 81(4) has been deleted and the reference to section 100D has been amended to section 100D(1) in proposed section 15(4)(b) to clarify that proposed section 15(4)(b) refers only to those sections which provide for the appointment or constitution of the first trustee who is not a provisional trustee; and
- (b) In Clause 17, a new paragraph (aa) is added to subsection 60(1) to provide the Official Receiver with the express power to take into custody or under control all the property to which the bankrupt is or appears to be entitled. This is in response to the suggestion of the Assistant Legal Adviser at the meeting held on 10 May 2005.

2. As mentioned in our paper “Seventh meeting on 21 April 2005 – List of follow-up actions” (LC Paper No. CB(1)1467/04-05(02)), in the light of the views expressed by relevant stakeholders and the Bills Committee, we are consulting the Law Draftsman and finalizing the proposals for setting out the basic qualification criteria in subsidiary legislation and the detailed criteria in tender document. We would present our proposals, as well as replies to questions relating to proposed section 37(1), at the Bills Committee meeting scheduled for 26 May 2005.

28. Sections added

The following are added immediately after section 86 -

“Duties of trustee as regards the bankrupt’s conduct and estate

86A. Duties of trustee as regards the bankrupt’s conduct¹²

¹¹ See footnote (10).

¹² Section 86A of the Bill originally provides that it shall be the duty of a trustee to (a) report to the court on any conduct of the bankrupt that justifies the court in refusing, suspending or qualifying an order for the bankrupt’s discharge; and (b) investigate the conduct of a bankrupt, and to submit a report to the court (if the trustee is the OR) or OR (if the trustee is a person other than OR), stating whether there is reason to believe that the bankrupt has committed any act that constitutes an indictable offence under the BO. On the former duty, new section 86A(1) aims to clarify that the trustee should also investigate the conduct of the bankrupt (a similar duty is also found in existing section 77 of the BO). As regards the latter duty, the existing arrangement is that whenever there is any report of an offence (whether indictable or not) under the BO, the OR will initiate the prosecution action, where appropriate. In view of this, it is not considered necessary to impose a reporting duty on the OR in relation to any conduct which constitutes an indictable offence under the BO. Furthermore, the scope of the reporting duty imposed on a trustee (other than the OR) should be expanded to cover both indictable and summary (not indictable) offences. New section 86A(2) aims to give effect to these changes.

(1) As regards the conduct of a bankrupt, it shall be the duty of the trustee to investigate the conduct of the bankrupt and to report to the court on any conduct that justifies the court in refusing, suspending or qualifying an order for the bankrupt's discharge.

(2) In the case of a trustee other than the Official Receiver, it shall also be the duty of the trustee –

(a) to investigate the conduct of the bankrupt and to immediately report to the Official Receiver when he reasonably believes that the bankrupt has committed an act that constitutes an offence under this Ordinance; and

(b) to take such part and give such assistance in relation to the prosecution of any bankrupt as the Secretary for Justice or the Official Receiver may direct.

~~(1) As regards the conduct of a bankrupt, it shall be the duty of the trustee –~~

~~(a) to investigate the conduct of the bankrupt and to submit a report in accordance with subsection (2) or (3), as the case may be, stating whether there is reason to believe that the bankrupt has committed any act that constitutes an indictable offence under this Ordinance;~~

~~(b) to report to the court on any conduct of the bankrupt that justifies the court in refusing, suspending or qualifying an order for the bankrupt's discharge;~~

~~(c) to take such part and give such assistance in relation to the prosecution of any bankrupt as the Secretary for Justice or the Official Receiver may direct.~~

~~(2) Where the trustee is a person other than the Official Receiver, the report referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall be submitted to the Official Receiver.~~

~~(3) Where the trustee is the Official Receiver, the report referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall be submitted to the court.~~

36. Review and appeals in bankruptcy

Section 98(2) is amended by repealing ~~“21” and substituting “28”~~ “The appeal shall be commenced within 21 days from the time when the decision appealed against is pronounced or made” and substituting “The notice of appeal shall be served within the time for appealing against an order made in the matter of any bankruptcy as specified in Order 59, rule 4(1)(b) of the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A)”¹³.

47. Consequential amendments

¹³ Existing section 98(2) sets out the time limit for the lodging of appeal against orders of the court or the Registrar of the High Court in bankruptcy proceedings. The proposed amendment aims to make section 98(2) in line with the Order 59, rule 4(1)(b) of the Rules of the High Court. At present, the time limit prescribed in the latter provision is 28 days.

The enactments specified in column 2 of the Schedule are amended in the manner set out in column 3 of the Schedule.
