The Chief Executive's Question and Answer Session

The Chief Executive attended the Council.

Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung rose to complain that he had been restrained by force by two men who identified themselves as bodyguards when he tried to present something to the Chief Executive at the entrance of the Legislative Council Building. He queried the true identity of the two men who had treated him rudely even though he was a Legislative Council Member, and who were now inside the Legislative Council Chamber.

The President said that she would deal with the complaint after the meeting.

Hon James TO raised a question on whether Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung felt threatened by some unidentified persons being inside the Legislative Council Building Chamber.

The President suspended the meeting at 3:12 pm, on the grounds that the meeting could not proceed to its business with the Members' interference.

The Council resumed at 3:20 pm.

The Chief Executive addressed the Council.

The President said that she noticed that Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung was wearing a T-shirt printed with some slogans. While members of public in the Public Gallery were not allowed to display slogans, the Rules of Procedure imposed no such restriction on Members. Yet in the light that Members were expected to display a higher standard of conduct than the general public, she would request Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung to cover up the slogans on his T-shirt. Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung replied that he wore such T-shirt on purpose for the Chief Executive to read the slogans and understand the people's wish. The President then said that she would refer the matter to the Committee on Rules of Procedure for follow-up.

The Chief Executive then took questions from Members.

17 Members asked questions and the Chief Executive replied.

Next Meeting

The President declared that the next meeting of the Council would be held on 20 October 2004 at 2:30 pm.

The Council was adjourned at 4:35 pm.
