Perfecting the policy on protection of trees

Hon CHOY So-yuk moved the following motion and addressed the Council:

That, as currently the Government does not have a set of effective administrative measures or legislation to protect trees, and as co-ordination is lacking because the responsibilities are scattered among various departments, which may result in trees in the territory being destroyed, damaged or removed due to urban development, negligence or other reasons, this Council urges the Government to expeditiously formulate an effective policy on protection of trees, and at the same time perfect existing relevant legislation, administrative measures as well as administrative framework, so as to effectively protect and preserve various kinds of trees, especially those that are exceptionally old and large, rare and valuable, of historical, cultural or memorial significance, and of special ecological or scientific research value.

Question on Hon CHOY So-yuk's motion proposed.

The President stated that Hon Martin LEE would move an amendment to the motion. In accordance with the Rules of Procedure, the motion and the amendment would be debated together in a joint debate.

Hon Martin LEE moved the following amendment to Hon CHOY So-yuk's motion and addressed the Council:

To add ", poor management, vandalism" after "negligence"; to delete "various kinds of trees" after "so as to effectively protect and preserve" and substitute with "mature trees outside country parks, as well as urban woods"; and to delete "those" after "especially" and substitute with "trees".

Hon CHAN Yuen-han spoke on the amendments.

The Secretary for Health, Welfare and Food spoke on the motion and the amendments.

Hon Albert HO moved the following amendment to Hon CHAN Yuen-han's motion:

To add "whereas the Government has often overlooked the gender perspectives in formulating public policies and the Commission on Poverty and the Women's Commission have not shown adequate concern about gender-oriented poverty problems," after "women in Hong Kong is worsening,"; to delete "feminization" after "this Council urges the Government to face up to the" and substitute with "problem"; to delete "and" before "formulate concrete policies" and substitute with "among women,"; and to add ", and, in response to the comments and recommendations made by the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights when examining the Report of Hong Kong in 2001, adopt corresponding measures, which should include: (a) taking into account gender perspectives in the formulation of policies; (b) providing the Women's Commission with sufficient powers and resources to ensure that gender perspectives are taken into account in the policy-making process; (c) prohibiting age discrimination; (d) enacting legislation for the implementation of equal pay for work of equal value as provided for in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights; and (e) introducing a comprehensive pension scheme with a view to providing adequate protection for housewives in Hong Kong" after "to assist the women in poverty".

Question on Hon Albert HO's amendment to Hon CHAN Yuen-han's motion proposed and put.

Hon Albert HO claimed a division. The President then ordered the Council to divide under Rule 47(1) of the Rules of Procedure.

Noting the absence of a quorum, the President directed the Clerk to summon Members to the meeting. A quorum was then present.

The President announced that among the Members returned by functional constituencies, 15 were present, seven were in favour of the amendment and eight against it; while among the Members returned by geographical constituencies through direct elections, 18 were present, 15 were in favour of the amendment and two against it. (Voting record in Appendix IV.) Since the question was not agreed by a majority of each of the two groups of Members present, she declared that the amendment was negatived.

Hon Miriam LAU rose to move the following motion without notice:

That in the event of further divisions in relation to the motion or amendments thereto on "Policy on assisting women in poverty", the Council do proceed to each of such divisions after the division bell has been rung for one minute.

Question on the motion proposed, put and agreed to.

Hon LEE Cheuk-yan moved the following amendment to Hon CHAN Yuen-han's motion:

To add ", which should include: (a) enhancing women's financial independence through vocational and skills training and development of community economy; (b) prescribing a minimum wage and implementing the principle of equal pay for work of equal value to alleviate the problem of working poverty among women; (c) strengthening support for single-parent families; and (d) introducing an old age pension system to protect the retirement life of non-working women" after "to assist the women in poverty".

Question on Hon LEE Cheuk-yan's amendment to Hon CHAN Yuen-han's motion proposed and put.

Hon LEE Cheuk-yan claimed a division. The President then ordered the Council to divide under Rule 49(5) of the Rules of Procedure.

The President announced that among the Members returned by functional constituencies, 16 were present, seven were in favour of the amendment and nine against it; while among the Members returned by geographical constituencies through direct elections, 18 were present, 15 were in favour of the amendment and two against it.
