Dear Mrs Ma,

Panel on Administration of Justice and Legal Services
Meeting on 14 December 2004 at 4:30 pm
Item VI: Solicitor Corporations Rules

I refer to the above matter.

The Law Society Council is empowered under the relevant provisions in the Legal Practitioners Ordinance to make rules relating to solicitors corporations. Our Department's role is to facilitate the Law Society by giving comments from the legal policy point of view and providing drafting assistance, if required. Since we have no legal policy objections to the latest draft Rules provided by the Law Society, our Department's only role at present is to assist with the drafting.

Our Law Drafting Division has provided comments on the English draft on 19 November 2004 for the Law Society's consideration. We would be working closely with the Law Society to finalize the English and Chinese draft Rules as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

(Ms Kitty Fung)
Senior Government Counsel
Legal Policy Division
