Dear Mrs Ma,

Legislative Council Panel on Constitutional Affairs

At the last meeting of the Constitutional Affairs Panel on 18 October, a Member suggested that representatives from the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress (NPCSC) be invited to discuss with the Panel issues relating to constitutional development. You indicated that you would wish to have the Administration's advice on the addressing of relevant correspondence.

If Members decide to pursue the matter at the next meeting, any such correspondence could be addressed to the General Office of NPCSC. You can consider forwarding the correspondence to the Secretariat through the Office of the Chief Executive.

Yours sincerely,

(Ms Doris Ho)
for Secretary for Constitutional Affairs
