1. Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Identity Card Project

At the special meeting on 14 February 2001, the Administration undertook to report the progress of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Identity Card Project to the Panel on a regular basis. The Administration briefed members on the results of the second Privacy Impact Assessment study and the latest developments on non-immigration applications for incorporation into the smart identity card at the meeting on 10 July 2002. The Bills Committee on Registration of Persons (Amendment) Bill 2001 and other interested Members visited the Immigration Department on 8 March 2003 to view a demonstration on the new work process of the Smart Identity Card System.

To be confirmed

In the course of deliberations of the Registration of Persons (Amendment) Bill 2001, the Administration undertook -

- (a) to brief the Panel on Security on the progress of the implementation of the System before the Commissioner of Registration specifies the date on which the System comes into operation;

(Note : A demonstration to Members in a live production environment was conducted on 17 June 2003.)

- (b) to draw up a code of practice in consultation with the Privacy Commissioner setting out the rules on the collection, use of and access to smart ID card data and the conduct of privacy compliance audit;

Proposed timing
for discussion

(Note : Following the completion of the fourth Privacy Impact Assessment, the Director of Immigration, in consultation with the Privacy Commissioner, is finalising a code of practice.)

- (c) to provide a copy of the privacy compliance audit report to the Legislative Council (LegCo) after the audit is completed;
- (d) to brief the relevant Panels before introducing subsidiary legislation providing for the incorporation of new non-registration of persons related applications in the chip of a smart ID card; and
- (e) to launch publicity programmes through overseas Economic and Trade Offices to notify overseas HKSAR permanent residents of the ID card replacement exercise and the requirement to apply for a new card within 30 days of their return to Hong Kong.

(Note : The Administration has advised that relevant publicity including placing advertisements in newspapers, distributing leaflets and displaying posters, has been launched since August 2003 with the assistance of Hong Kong Economic and Trade Offices overseas.)

The Registration of Persons (Amendment) Bill 2001 was passed by the Legislative Council on 19 March 2003 and commenced operation on 12 May 2003. The Administration's progress report on the Project, which also covered the findings and recommendations in the Fourth Privacy Impact Assessment and the Administration's responses, was circulated to members vide LC Paper No. CB(2)858/04-05 on 14 February 2005.

The territory-wide replacement exercise commenced on 18 August 2003. To prepare for the first to fifth cycles of the replacement exercise, the Secretary for Security had made Orders under the Registration of Persons Ordinance (Cap. 177) to direct certain persons including those born in 1943 to 1985 and cross boundary drivers to apply for new identity cards in the nine Smart Identity Card Centres.

2. Commencement of the Fire Safety (Buildings) Bill

In the course of examination of the commencement clause of the Fire Safety (Buildings) Bill, the Bills Committee considered that the Bill should not come into operation before the amendments to the Building Management Ordinance to empower owners' corporations to borrow from the Building Safety Loan Scheme had been enacted. The Administration would, when time was ripe and circumstances permit, prepare a paper setting out its views and proposal for bringing the Bill into force for discussion by the Panel. The Administration undertook not to bring the Bill into operation without first obtaining the support of a great majority of members of the Panel.

To be confirmed

The Administration provided a paper (LC Paper No. CB(2)104/04-05(01) issued on 27 October 2004) advising that subject to the passage of the Building Management (Amendment) Bill, which was introduced into the Legislative Council in April 2005, and related subsidiary legislation, the Administration would in due course prepare a paper to consult the Panel on the timing for bringing the Fire Safety (Buildings) Ordinance into force.

3. Guidelines in the Force Procedures Manual on the seizure of property

In the course of deliberation concerning the time for the return of seized property, the Bills Committee on Karaoke Establishments Bill made reference to the general guidelines in the Force Procedures Manual. A member of the Bills Committee took the view that the guidelines in the Force Procedures Manual should set out more information such as whether the seizure was absolutely necessary, the quantity of items which should be seized and whether quantity seized would have a punitive effect. The Bills Committee agreed that the matter should be referred to the Panel for follow-up. A note dated 17 May 2004 from Hon Tommy CHEUNG Yu-yan was circulated to members vide LC Paper No. CB(2)2561/03-04(01) on 28 May 2004 and the Administration's response was circulated to members vide LC Paper No. CB(2)3067/03-04 on 12 July 2004.

5. Follow-up on issues relating to the Police's List of Recordable Offences

Issues relating to the Police's List of Recordable Offences and Certificate of No Criminal Conviction were discussed at the meeting on 2 April 2004. Members were concerned that besides some 167 recordable offences which might be recordable by the Police, offences where a heavier sentence would be imposed on conviction would also be recorded. They considered that the criteria for recording a conviction should be set out clearly and the records of convictions maintained by the Police should be separated from the system for issuing Certificate of No Criminal Conviction. The Administration stated that it would examine the issue having regard to the practice in other countries. Hon James TO proposed that the matter be followed up by the Panel.
