“16A. Variation of rent for residential estates

~~(1) The Authority shall review the relevant rent as soon as practicable after the second anniversary of the commencement date, and as soon as practicable after the second anniversary of the date of the last review under this subsection, but not otherwise.~~

(1) The Authority shall review the relevant rent –

(a) as soon as practicable after 1 January 2010; and

(b) as soon as practicable after the second anniversary of the expiry date of the second period for the last review under this subsection.

(2) Despite section 16, the Authority shall not vary the relevant rent unless the variation is carried out under subsection (4).

(3) This section –

(a) does not apply to –

- (i) an adjustment in the rent of a residential tenant where the total household income or total value of the household assets, or a combination of that income and that value, as determined by the Authority, is greater than a threshold established by the Authority for the purposes of an increase in the rent; and
 - (ii) a re-adjustment in the rent of that tenant where the total household income or total value of the household assets, or a combination of that income and that value, as determined by the Authority, is less than that threshold; and
- (b) does not apply to –
 - (i) an adjustment in the rent of a residential tenant where the total household income or total value of the household assets, or a combination of that income and that value, as determined by the Authority, is less than a threshold established by the Authority for the purposes of a reduction in the rent; and
 - (ii) a re-adjustment in the rent of that tenant where the total household income or total value of the household assets, or a combination of that income and that value, as determined by the Authority, is greater than that threshold.

(4) Subject to ~~subsections (5) and (6)~~subsection (5), the Authority –

- (a) if satisfied on a review of the relevant rent that the income index for the second period is higher than the income index for the first period by more than 0.1%, shall as soon as practicable after the review increase the relevant rent by the rate of the increase of the income index or 10%, whichever is less; and
- (b) if satisfied on a review of the relevant rent that the income index for the second period is lower than the income index for the first period by more than 0.1%, shall as soon as practicable after the review reduce the relevant rent by the rate of the reduction of the income index.

~~(5) The Authority shall not vary the relevant rent –~~

~~(a) within 2 years after the commencement date; or~~

~~(b) where the relevant rent is varied under subsection (4), within 2 years after the date of the last variation.~~

(5) The Authority shall not vary the relevant rent -

- (a) on or before 1 January 2010; or
- (b) where the relevant rent is varied under subsection (4), before the second anniversary of the date of the last variation.

~~(6) The Authority is not required to vary the relevant rent if, in the Authority's opinion, the amount of the variation required under subsection (4) is insignificant.~~

(7) In varying the relevant rent, the Authority may round down the amount of the relevant rent to the nearest dollar.

(8) For the purpose of a review of the relevant rent, ~~the Authority~~ –

- (a) ~~may determine that~~ the Authority may compile –
 - (i) an index ~~is to be compiled to reflect that~~ reflects the level of the mean monthly household income of any class of residential tenant over the first period; and
 - (ii) an index ~~is to be compiled to reflect that~~ reflects the level of the adjusted mean monthly household income of that class of residential tenant over the second period; and
- ~~(b) may determine whether such an index is to be compiled by the Authority itself or by a tertiary~~

~~institution in Hong Kong, or public body, appointed by the Authority for the purpose; and~~

(b) the Commissioner for Census and Statistics shall,
in relation to the compilation of such an index,
compute the index.

~~(c) may determine how such an index is to be compiled by the Authority or the appointed institution or body.~~

(9) In this section –

(b) in relation to a subsequent review of the relevant rent, means a period of 12 months expiring on the second anniversary of the expiry date of the second period for the last review.”.

Explanatory Memorandum

The object of this Bill is to amend the Housing Ordinance (Cap. 283) (“the principal Ordinance”). The main purpose is to replace section 16(1A), (1B), (1C), (1D) and (1E) of the principal Ordinance with provisions requiring the Housing Authority (“the Authority”) to vary the rent of certain residential units with reference to the change in an index reflecting the level of household income of certain tenants of residential units.

2. Clause 3 repeals section 16(1A), (1B), (1C), (1D) and (1E) of the principal Ordinance.

3. Clause 4 adds a new section 16A to the principal Ordinance. The new section 16A –

- (a) relates to review of the rent of certain residential units;
- (b) requires the Authority to vary the rent of those units with reference to the change in an index reflecting the level of household income of certain tenants of residential units;
- (c) specifies when the Authority shall not, or is not required to, make such a variation; and
- (d) empowers the Authority to round down the amount of the rent in such a variation and to make determinations in relation to the compilation of such an index.
