I. Meeting with the Administration

The Bills Committee deliberated (index of proceedings attached at Annex).

2. The Bills Committee requested the Administration -
 - (a) to consider including an express provision in clause 7 to provide for the monitoring of whether a complaint should be categorised by the Commissioner of Police as non-reportable as one of the functions of the Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC);
 - (b) to explain, with the assistance of a diagram, the types of complaints not subject to the monitoring of the IPCC (i.e. those covered by clause 9) and those complaints that were to be categorised as reportable complaints and non-reportable complaints;

- (c) to explain what constituted a complaint "made in good faith" under clause 10(b) and to explain whether a complaint which was not vexatious or frivolous but lodged by a person who had previous disputes with the Police officer under complaint could be considered as a complaint made in good faith under clause 10(b);
- (d) to explain with examples the meaning and need for the term "directly affected" in clause 10(c);
- (e) to consider including a complaint relating to the conduct of a member of the police force believed to be on duty but had not identified himself as such a member as a reportable complaints; and
- (f) to review the drafting of clause 13.
