Proposed resolution under the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance

Hon WONG Kwok-hing moved the following motion and addressed the Council:

RESOLVED that in relation to the Road Traffic (Traffic Control) (Amendment) Regulation 2007, published in the Gazette as Legal Notice No. 16 of 2007 and laid on the table of the Legislative Council on 7 February 2007, the period for amending subsidiary legislation referred to in section 34(2) of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap. 1) be extended under section 34(4) of that Ordinance to the meeting of 28 March 2007.

Question on the motion proposed, put and agreed to.

Creating job opportunities and improving the income of elementary workers

Hon CHAN Yuen-han moved the following motion and addressed the Council:

That, despite the revival of Hong Kong's economy for a considerable period of time, the job market still suffers from serious structural imbalance and, without minimum wage protection, the income of workers is polarized, which has led to the widening of the disparity between the rich and the poor and the worsening of inter-generational poverty, this Council urges the Government to develop a diversified economy, such as promoting local community culture and creative industries, etc; at the same time, the Government should make changes to the relevant policies to facilitate the promotion of social enterprises, thereby increasing job opportunities and easing the oversupply of workers in the elementary labour market; in addition, the Government should provide more training opportunities to working youths and middle-aged people to enhance their competitiveness.

While Hon CHAN Yuen-han was addressing the Council, the President left the chair at 1:15 pm temporarily and the President's Deputy, Hon Miriam LAU, took the chair.

Question on Hon CHAN Yuen-han's motion proposed.

The President's Deputy stated that three Members would move amendments to the motion. In accordance with the Rules of Procedure, the motion and the three amendments would be debated together in a joint debate.

Strengthening the supervision of railway safety

Hon Andrew CHENG moved the following motion and addressed the Council:

That, as the railway network in Hong Kong is continuously expanding with part of the railway systems starting to age, and in view of the recent serious West Rail incident as well as the incidents and delays involving the railway systems that occurred from time to time in the past few years, which have aroused public concern about the safety of railway operations, this Council urges the Government to strengthen its supervision of the Kowloon-Canton Railway Corporation and the MTR Corporation Limited ("railway corporations") and to adopt the following measures, in order to safeguard the safety of the public and ensure that the railway systems are capable of providing efficient, effective and safe services:

- (a) creating the post of Commissioner for Railway Safety with the responsibilities to advise, conduct studies, make assessments and propose improvement measures on the various safety issues of the railway systems (including daily maintenance, system safety, train operations, etc), as well as to lead the work of the Railway Inspectorate;
- (b) expanding the current staff establishment and powers of the Railway Inspectorate to assist the Commissioner for Railway Safety in discharging his duties;
- (c) introducing a demerit points system for situations such as disruptions, delays and system failures in train services, and setting objective and clear standards for the service performance of the railway corporations;
- (d) including the number of hours of service disruptions or delays resulting from railway incidents, the number of affected passengers and the number of the resultant casualties as factors to be considered when assessing annually whether the services of the railway corporations have attained the required standards;

- (e) reviewing and improving the existing maintenance work of the railway systems, and requesting the railway corporations to allocate additional resources to their maintenance departments;
- (f) reviewing and improving the current feeder service arrangements and the contingency procedures in the event of train service disruptions or delays owing to incidents, so as to strengthen the capability of the railway corporations to cope with emergencies;
- (g) reviewing and upgrading the fire service equipment and means of escape provided along all the railways and inside the train cars;
- (h) requesting the railway corporations to give more training and support to the frontline maintenance staff, and requiring them to provide sufficient rest breaks for the staff, so as to enhance their morale and service quality;
- (i) requiring the railway corporations to provide radio reception services along all the railways (including the tunnels), so as to ensure that the public can obtain information on railway incidents and emergency arrangements more promptly; and
- (j) requesting the railway corporations to install screen doors or automated gates at the platforms of all railway stations so as to ensure the safety of passengers.

Question on Hon Andrew CHENG's motion proposed.
