Head : 92 Department of Justice      Subhead (No. & title) :

Programme : (4) Law Drafting

Controlling Officer : Director of Administration and Development

Question :

In response to Hon. Margaret NG's concern about the entry requirements for draftsmen in Law Drafting Division (LDD), the Secretary for Justice undertook to provide information on the number of serving draftsmen in LDD whom had been granted approval for exemptions from the general language proficiency requirement (i.e. obtaining 'Level 1' or "Level 2" results in the Use of Chinese and Use of English papers in the Common Recruitment Examination) during recruitment (Reply Serial No. SJ013).

Asked by : Hon. NG Margaret

Reply :

The general language proficiency requirement of obtaining a pass in both the Use of Chinese and Use of English papers in the Common Recruitment Examination (CRE) was introduced on 1 January 2003. Since then three officers in the entry rank of the Government Counsel grade have been recruited to join the Law Drafting Division. All three passed the two language papers in the CRE.

Head : 92 Department of Justice      Subhead (No. & title) :

Programme : (3) Legal Policy

Controlling Officer : Director of Administration and Development

Question :

On which bills did the Administration conduct legal research relating to human rights issues in 2006? Please list all the bills concerned and details of the research conducted (Reply Serial No. SJ001).

Asked by : Hon. LEE Chu-ming, Martin

Reply :

All bills are cleared by the Human Rights Unit from the human rights perspective to ensure compliance with human rights provisions of the Basic Law. Legal research is conducted in relation to the preparation of draft legislation in order to give advice as and when required. In 2006, legal research relating to human rights issues was conducted for the following gazetted bills –

- (i) Race Discrimination Bill;
- (ii) Interception of Communications and Surveillance Bill;
- (iii) Smoking (Public Health) (amendment) Bill 2005;
- (iv) Copyright (Amendment) Bill 2006;
- (v) Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel Bill; and
- (iv) Unsolicited Electronic Messages Bill.
