

Summary Results of the 2006 Population By-census

On 22 February 2007, the Census and Statistics Department published the Summary Results of the 2006 Population By-census. The Summary Results are part of the first batch of data released on the 2006 Population By-census. They describe the salient features of the population and the broad demographic changes in Hong Kong. Detailed results of the 2006 Population By-census will be released in stages in 2007 and 2008. For ease of reference, an attempt is made to group the summary findings broadly under the relevant policy areas as follows:
