

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

Companies Ordinance
(Chapter 32)

COMPANIES (REVISION OF ACCOUNTS AND REPORTS) REGULATION

INTRODUCTION

A At the meeting of the Executive Council on 6 February 2007, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that the Companies (Revision of Accounts and Reports) Regulation (“the Regulation”) at Annex A should be made under section 359A(3) of the Companies Ordinance (“CO”).

JUSTIFICATION

Existing situation

2. All companies incorporated in Hong Kong (“Hong Kong companies”) are required to keep annual accounts which should comply with the relevant accounting requirements set out in the CO. These accounts are required to be issued to members of the companies. In addition, the CO requires non-private Hong Kong companies, and companies registered as “oversea companies” (i.e. as “non-Hong Kong companies” in future⁽¹⁾), to deliver to the Registrar of Companies (“Registrar”) for registration their annual accounts (“registered accounts”). Registered accounts are open for public inspection. After accounts have been issued to members or registered with the Registrar, the directors may become aware of any non-compliance of those accounts with the CO and wish to revise them. Moreover, the directors of a company formed and registered under the CO are under a statutory

Note ⁽¹⁾ Schedule 2 to the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 (Ord. No. 30 of 2004) replaces the references to “oversea companies” under the CO with those to “non-Hong Kong companies”. The Schedule has not yet come into operation, pending upgrading of the information system of the Companies Registry. Oversea companies or non-Hong Kong companies are required to deliver to the Registrar for registration their annual accounts only if they are required to file their accounts in jurisdictions outside Hong Kong.

duty to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance of the accounts of the company with the CO (including section 123 which requires accounts to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company).

3. However, directors cannot revise such accounts unless statutorily empowered to do so. This has therefore created undesirable uncertainty for companies and their directors as to the proper steps to be taken to effect the revision.

New statutory regime for revision of accounts

4. With a view to introducing a new regime for company directors to revise accounts, the Financial Reporting Council Ordinance (Chapter 588) (“FRCO”), enacted on 13 July 2006, added to the CO new sections 141E and 336A (Annex B) to empower the directors of Hong Kong companies and oversea companies (i.e., in future, non-Hong Kong companies) to revise accounts (and consequentially the relevant summary financial report and directors’ report) where it appears to the directors that the original accounts did not comply with the CO. This provides an avenue for companies to take appropriate and timely action by revising original accounts, so as to prevent continuing reliance being placed on such accounts which may not comply with the statutory requirements.

5. In addition, this new “revision of accounts” regime is necessary to permit the newly-established Financial Reporting Council (“FRC”) to discharge one of its key functions which is to enquire into the non-compliance of listed companies’ accounts with the relevant statutory and non-statutory requirements. Following enquiries, the FRC may give notice to the relevant listed companies to request them to revise accounts voluntarily. In this light, this new “revision of accounts” regime provides the statutory mechanism that enables the directors of listed companies to take necessary remedial action regarding the original accounts in response to a request by the FRC.

6. This new “revision of accounts” regime will, therefore, contribute to the integrity of financial reporting of companies, upgrade corporate governance, and enhance shareholders’ protection.

Making of the Regulation

7. For the purpose of the new “revision of account” regime, section 359A of the CO (Annex B) was amended under the FRCO to empower the Chief Executive in Council to make regulations providing for the application of the CO in relation to the accounts, summary financial report and directors' report that are revised under sections 141E and 336A of the CO. In essence, the Regulation provides for how the requirements in the CO (including its subsidiary legislation) are extended to apply to revised accounts, summary financial reports or directors' reports, as these requirements apply to original accounts or reports, subject to the necessary additions, exceptions and modifications as specified in the Regulation to suit the purposes of revision.

THE REGULATION

8. The Regulation is divided into five parts.

9. Part 1 contains preliminary provisions. Section 2 defines the terms used in the Regulation.

10. Part 2 deals with accounts, directors' reports and summary financial reports, in relation to Hong Kong companies, that have been revised under section 141E of the CO. In this regard –

- (a) Sections 3 to 5 provide for the application, in relation to any revised accounts or reports, of a provision of the CO and the Companies (Summary Financial Reports of Listed Companies) Regulation (Chapter 32, Subsidiary Legislation M) as to the matters to be included in accounts or reports, and require directors to specify in the revised accounts or reports the relevant information pertinent to the revision made. In particular, sections 3(6) to (10), 4(5) to (7) and 5(6) set out the offence provisions for non-compliance with the relevant requirements of preparing such revised accounts and reports, modelling on sections 123(6), 128(6), 129(6), 129F, 141CF(3), 141CG and 141D(4) of the CO;
- (b) Sections 6 to 8 provide for the application, in relation to any revised accounts or reports, of the procedures governing the approval and signature of accounts and reports set out in sections 129B, 129C, 129D, 141CF and 141D of the CO;
- (c) Section 9 provides that, from the date of revision onwards, the CO has effect with respect to revised accounts or reports;
- (d) Sections 10 and 11 set out the requirements for an audit report to be made on revised accounts, in accordance with the similar requirements in sections 133, 134 and 141 of the CO;

- (e) Section 12 sets out the requirements for companies to distribute revised accounts or directors' report, in accordance with the similar requirements in section 129G of the CO;
- (f) Section 13 sets out the requirements for listed companies to notify recipients of a summary financial report after the corresponding original accounts have been revised, in accordance with the similar requirements in section 141CA of the CO;
- (g) Section 14 models on section 141CH of the CO to permit revised accounts or reports of listed companies to be sent to recipients by use of computer network;
- (h) Section 15 sets out the requirements for directors to lay before a general meeting of a company any revised accounts or reports, as they shall do so in respect of the original accounts or reports under sections 122, 124 and 129D of the CO; and
- (i) Section 16 requires companies to deliver to the Registrar a copy of any revised accounts or reports, as they shall do so in respect of the original accounts or reports under section 109 of the CO.

11. Parts 3 and 4 deal with accounts, respectively in relation to overseas companies and non-Hong Kong companies, that have been revised under section 336A of the CO which applies to overseas companies and section 336A of the CO which applies to non-Hong Kong companies. Part 3 will operate when the former section 336A is in operation, whereas Part 4 will operate when the latter section 336A is in operation. In this regard -

- (a) Sections 17 and 20 respectively require an overseas company and a non-Hong Kong company to include in any revised accounts or reports certain information regarding the revision and set out the requirements for that company to deliver to the Registrar for registration a certified copy of the revised accounts or reports. The offence provisions in sections 17(4) and 20(4) are modelled on section 340 of the CO; and
- (b) Sections 18 and 21 respectively provide that Part XI of the CO (which concerns overseas companies and non-Hong Kong companies) has effect with respect to the revised accounts and reports.

12. Part 5 contains miscellaneous provisions. Sections 22 and 23 mirror sections 122(3), 123(6), 124(3), 129F and 141D(4) of the CO in providing for a defence for certain charges under the Regulation and the condition upon satisfaction of which a court may sentence a person to imprisonment for certain offences under the Regulation.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

13. The legislative timetable will be as follows -

Publication in the Gazette	16 February 2007
Tabling before the Legislative Council for negative vetting	28 February 2007
Commencement of the Regulation	20 April 2007 ⁽²⁾

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSAL

14. The Regulation is in conformity with the Basic Law, including the provisions concerning human rights, and will not affect the current binding effect of the CO. It has no financial, civil service, productivity, environmental or sustainability implications. The Regulation will bring about economic benefits in terms of enabling company members and the investing public to be informed of accurate business and financial situation of the company concerned, thereby promoting market transparency and upgrading corporate governance.

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

15. The Regulation is made under section 359A(3) of the CO, which was enacted under the FRCO. This enabling provision of the CO, setting out the scope, purpose and broad principle of the Regulation, was part and parcel of the Financial Reporting Council Bill which underwent public consultation twice in September 2003 and February 2005.

16. We have, in November 2006, consulted various stakeholders in the accounting and legal profession, market regulators and operators, chambers of commerce, academic institutions and other professional bodies on the draft provisions of the Regulation. The same was also Note ⁽²⁾ Save Part 4 of the Regulation (concerning non-Hong Kong companies), we intend that the Regulation shall come into operation on 20 April 2007. The commencement of Part 4 of the Regulation shall tie in with that of Schedule 2 to the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 (Ord. No. 30 of 2004).

uploaded to the webpage of the Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau.

17. Respondents generally reaffirmed their support of the intent of the Regulation. We were assisted by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the statutory authority for setting accounting and auditing standards, in finalising the Regulation. In addition, we have taken on board technical and drafting comments made by other respondents as appropriate. A few respondents suggested that further consideration should be given in future company law reforms to provide for revision of accounts beyond voluntary revision.

PUBLICITY

18. A press release will be issued and a spokesman will be available for answering any media enquiries.

ENQUIRY

19. Enquiries should be directed to Mr Jackie Liu, Assistant Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury (Financial Services) whose telephone number is 25273102.
