Legislative Council Panel on Constitutional Affairs
Special Meeting

The Government will release later today the "Report on Further Development of the Political Appointment System", which sets out the way forward on the proposals to further develop the Political Appointment System by creating two additional layers of political appointees, namely Deputy Directors of Bureau and Political Assistants to Directors of Bureau.

I would like to take the earliest opportunity to brief members of the Panel on Constitutional Affairs on our proposals, and should be grateful if you would agree to hold a special Panel meeting for this purpose early next week.

(Stephen Lam)

Secretary for Constitutional and Mainland Affairs
