Dear Ms Lam,

Panel on Financial Affairs

Follow-up to meeting on 28 February 2008

I refer to your letter of 28 February 2008. The Administration's response to item 1 of the list of follow-up actions attached in your letter is as follows:

Of the 700 prosecution cases involving vehicles bearing Personalized Vehicle Registration Marks (PVRMs) between September 2006 and September 2007, 685 cases were fixed penalty tickets while 15 cases were court summons. Of the 15 summons, 14 cases were convicted and 1 case was withdrawn. Nevertheless, the reason of withdrawal has no relevance to the PVRM. Besides, none of the prosecuted persons in those 700 cases contested the charges against them on the grounds of pertaining to the PVRMs.

Yours sincerely,

(Steve Tse)

for Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury
