Dear Ms Yeung

In an ongoing effort to enhance our services to customers, Octopus Cards Limited (OCL) will introduce a new transaction record printing service, effective 30 June 2008, at all 7-Eleven outlets throughout Hong Kong.

With this new service, Octopus users can request a print-out of their last 10 transactions at 7-Eleven, which will clearly show the date, time, type of merchant, and amount of each transaction. A nominal fee of HK$3 will be charged by 7-Eleven.

Transaction record checking is now available to Octopus customers no matter where they are, be it underground, on the street or at home, bringing true convenience to both payment and money management.

Attached please find a press release that has been sent to the media earlier today. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Yours sincerely,
