11. Review on the measures to promote green features in building developments

The subject was proposed by Hon LEE Wing-tat at the meeting on 28 November 2006. One of the Government's measures to encourage and promote the construction of green buildings is the exemption of certain green features from the calculation of gross floor area in building developments. The Government has been monitoring the provision of green features in building developments. In this regard, the Buildings Department has, in conjunction with other relevant departments, initiated a review of the effectiveness of the incentive measure. As part of the review, the Administration has conducted opinion surveys to seek the views of relevant stakeholders and building occupants on the usefulness of green and amenity features in buildings. The Administration is analyzing the results of the surveys in drawing up the proposals. It will brief the Panel as soon as possible after the review is completed.

Members may wish to consider discussing the subject jointly with the Panel on Environmental Affairs upon completion of the review

The Administration has advised that the subject has come under the purview of the Environment Bureau after the reorganization of the Government.
