Subject RE: Letter from Housing Department on request of the LegCo Select Committee

I seem to recall that such a suggestion was made by Mr. Leung Chin-man and that I rejected it. Whilst I do not recall the details, circumstances or date, I have no reason to dispute that it was made at a meeting on 30/10/03. However, I doubt that I would have been so arrogant as to say that my reason for rejecting the idea was that I was the most experienced valuer in Hong Kong. Had I done so, it would have merely been in jest. If I were to have given a reason, I think it most likely that it would have been that I found it pointless as it would not have assisted us in our argument with First Star. John Corrigall
