Re: The Personal Profile of Mr. Chung Kwok Cheong [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Solicitor

After the completion of his legal education in the University of Hong Kong and his service for article of clerkship with Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Master, he commenced his legal practice in Messrs. Lau, Chan & Ko in early 1980 as an assistant solicitor whereby he engaged himself in litigation as an advocate.

In 1982, he was invited to join the partnership of Messrs. Cheung, Chan & Chung. From then onwards, he exclusively participated in the conveyancing practice of the firm as well as development for clientele in that area and legal works incidental thereto.

In 1984, he was admitted as a solicitor in the Supreme Court of England and Wales. Admission to other jurisdictions include the State of Victoria, Australia, the State of New South Wales, Australia and Singapore. In 1991, he was honoured by the appointment as a Notary Public.

Throughout the years, he has been handling tens of thousand of conveyancing files, both contentious and non-contentious, which included property of value exceeding HK$1 billion. In 2000, he was gracefully appointed as the first Senior Consultant of Messrs. Cheung, Chan & Chung as an accreditation of his unceasing contribution.

Not long thereafter, he started in 2001 to pursue a post-graduate course of Master of Arts in Chinese History in the University of Hong Kong to fulfill his endless desire for acquisition of knowledge.

May not only this firm but also the community be benefited from the wisdom of Mr. Chung.
