Subject RE: minimum wage

Please do so, coz I would like to express my concern especially during this "weird" economy crisis. Maybe, let me quote what is the rates of a restaurant and maybe you can take it as a reference.

Cleaner $23-25/hr
Waiter/Waitressing $23-30/hr base on experience
Bartender $32-35/hr
General cook - $35-40/hr
Chinese Cook $42-50/hr

Usually they are paid monthly 6/day work week and with all the employment's act benefits. So the above are a general guide.

So if you consider a minimum wage of $30 for a cleaner or any other post, what would the rest of a higher post be getting then??? Will they be also asking more than those low range job? The cost of running a small business is getting high especially with the rising inflation rate but yet the economy is consider weak. Does it reflecting the real economy?
